

REDS TAKE SECOND GAME

STRONG SENTIMENT IS DEVELOPING FOR A MEMORIAL HOSPITAL

Greene County's Hospital, to be erected as a memorial to the soldiers, sailors and marines of this county, is now resting on the feelings of the people of this county.

Following a meeting of Dr. W. A. Galloway, who is fostering the movement, with the County Commissioners Wednesday and a meeting of the committee of doctors and laymen, held in the rooms of the Chamber of Commerce Wednesday evening, it was practically assured that the issue will be put to a vote of the people on the regular election day, in November. A bond issue of $300,000 will be asked for at that time, to build the hospital.

A strong sentiment favoring such a memorial was expressed at the committee meeting Wednesday evening. When it was expressed that the hospital should not only be a strong factor in the health of the county, but also should be a lasting and fitting memorial to the soldiers, sailors and marines of the late war. In taking this step to thus honor its soldiery, Greene county is making the initial move of this kind in Ohio, and it should set a standard that will do honor to the county in the state.

Strongly favoring the erection, not only of a hospital, but of a good and fitting hospital, was Lieut. Col. John A. Hornsby, who is Chief of the Bureau of Hospital Construction of the United States and also Chief of the Bureau of Hospital Inspection, not having been discharged from the service yet.

Taking the questions that would confront local people in turn, Dr. Hornsby took up the following questions: Is it a good thing to build a hospital for a memorial? Do you need a hospital? What kind of a hospital? What should it cost? Can you afford to run a hospital after you get it? Dr. Hornsby also answered a number of questions put to him following the meeting.

Dr. Hornsby spoke of the value of the hospital in the community, and of the great good done by the cheaply built hospitals used by the Army. He said that the hospital of today should be a preventative hospital rather than just a curative hospital—that rather than only curing the cases brought to it, it should stand for a disease preventative in the community. The hospital should be a health center out of which should come the factor that will prevent disease," said Dr. Hornsby.

"The cure in the hospital is merely incidental to the service of that hospital. The hospital in the past has not bothered itself with the preventative. In the future we will teach people how to stay well. Today three per cent of the wage earners are sick and unable to work."

Dr. Hornsby urged that the hospital of the future be a place that will take in any living human being who is sick and needs attention. Not to make the hospital a charity place, for it should pay for itself in caring for the sick who really can pay themselves, but to take in everybody whether they can pay for themselves or not, and in any event give them one hundred per cent service, instead of 25 or 30 per cent service as the charity patient usually gets.

Col. Hornsby said that Greene county wants a hospital that is as good as can be obtained, well equipped and manned by the highest type of scientific people trained for that work. In speaking of the size of the hospital, Dr. Hornsby said that now the county needs 250 hospital beds and only has 60. "I'll guarantee that if you will build any part of 250 beds and equip and run it right, you'll need 500 in another year," said he.

Figuring what Greene County will need in the next thirty years, the hospital should be built on a plan that can easily be added to without great trouble, said the Doctor. He urged that at least $200,000 be expended on the new building and equipment.

Introducing Dr. Hornsby, Dr. Galloway spoke of the debt the county owes to the 1200 boys who went in the various branches of service for their country. These 1200 men in the flower of their manhood, were in the service one year, he explained, and at an average salary minimum of $3 a day they were worth $3,600 a day or in one year, $1,500,000. To build a hospital, he explained, was the least the county could do to help repay these boys, and give them a memorial that is really worth while.

At the noon luncheon Wednesday at which time, Dr. Galloway conferred with members of the county commissioners in regard to the project, it was decided that a bond issue of $200,000 would cover the erection. That this was not enough money was demonstrated at the meeting of doctors and laymen held following the open forum. Laymen expressed themselves strongly in favor of the plan but urged a large bond issue.

T. B. Andrews, layman member of the board, struck the keynote of a larger bond issue, when he insisted that $500,000 would not be too much to put into the memorial. He was quickly seconded by other members of the committee and it was decided at the meeting that an issue of $300,000 would be asked for at the regular election in November.

Dr. Hornsby's speech came during the first open forum conducted by the Chamber of Commerce. C. A. Weaver acted as Chairman of the meeting and George W. Hanley, of the American City Bureau, explained the purpose of the forum.

FEDERAL TROOPS CALLED TO QUELL RIOTS IN HELENA

Helena, Ark., Oct. 2.—Federal troops and special deputies are patrolling Elaine, near here, pending the arrival today of 500 troops from Camp Pike ordered out to quell race riots in which three white men and seven negroes are reported killed and a score or more seriously injured.

The trouble started Tuesday night when Deputy Charles Pratt and W. A. Adkin, while on their way to Hope Spur, near Elaine, to arrest negroes involved in a family quarrel, were ambushed by several negroes who fired a round of shots at the officers, instantly killing Adkin and wounding Pratt.

A negro trusty who was with Pratt at the time of the shooting notified the sheriff, warning him that a general uprising of negroes in that vicinity planned. A posse on entering Elaine to arrest negroes were fired upon by a negro mob reported to be 1,500.

Arming themselves with shot guns and revolvers several posses from all sections of the country hurried to the aid of the white men at Elaine and in the fighting which followed Clinton Lee and H. A. Tappen, white men of Elaine and seven negroes were reported killed.

Sheriff Amos Darman declared today that more than 100 negroes and a white man who is said to have directed the negro mob in their attack on the posse, have been arrested.

ATTENTION TURNED TO AMERICANIZATION

Cleveland, Oct. 2.—From labor, the eighth annual safety congress of the national safety council today turned its attention to Americanization.

At the opening session labor and capital were both represented in discussion of employee's representation. Labor was told by Cyrus McCormick, Jr., that "our friends of the American Federation of Labor have mistaken the trend of employee representation. It is sincere effort to bring quick, Jr., that "our friends of the benefit of each."

William M. Leiserson, of Rochester, declared that the essence of democracy is collective bargaining and peace by Matthew Dell, of the American Federation of Labor upheld trade unionism as opposed to the "company union plan."

The principles and methods of Americanization were discussed this afternoon as well as the "immigrants act" and "what the industries can do."

TWO PERSONS KILLED.

Wheeling, West Virginia, Oct. 2.—Two persons, man and wife, were killed, two seriously injured and five others were slightly hurt when a string of loaded mine cars left the elevated tracks at the tipple of the Richland Coal Company at Harwood, and crashed through the roof of a dwelling early today.

Phillip Johnson, a miner, and his wife, were asleep in the front room, and were carried to the cellar with the debris. They were dead when dug out.

OMAHA EXECUTIVE WHO HAD NARROW ESCAPE FROM DEATH AT HANDS OF MOB.

Mayor E. P. Smith of Omaha, who is critically ill in a hospital in that city as a result of the attempt to lynch him when a mob stormed and burned the city prison to get a negro. Mayor Smith made several unsuccessful attempts to save the negro's life, when he himself was seized by the infuriated mob. After being dragged through the streets, a rope was put around his neck and thrown over the support of a trolley pole. Twice the mayor was dragged from the ground before the police rescued him.

HOPE FOR ARBITRATION OF STEEL STRIKE IS PRACTICALLY GIVEN UP

Washington, Oct. 2.—Hopes for arbitration of the steel strike at the investigating the strike were slight suggestion of the senate committee day as the committee prepared for its second day of examination of E. H. Gary, chief executive officer of the U. S. Steel Corporation.

Judge Gary has shown no disposition to arbitrate, although the members of the committee have not yet been able to put the question to him squarely. Senator Kenyon today proposed to invite Judge Gary to submit the controversy to arbitration but had slight hopes of getting a satisfactory answer.

Senator Kenyon was anxious to get into the record the steps taken by President Wilson to prevent the strike. Judge Gary has refused to state what passed between himself and the president despite testimony before the committee to the effect that the president urged Judge Gary to meet with labor leaders and hear their proposals.

Senator Kenyon has asked the White House to make public the correspondence between Judge Gary and President Wilson. Judge Gary to meet with labor leaders and hear their proposals. Senator Kenyon has asked the White House to make public the correspondence between Judge Gary and President Wilson.

Today Senator Kenyon planned a trip to Pittsburgh to investigate conditions first hand. He has a resolution before the senate giving the committee the authority to investigate outside of the district of Columbia and hoped that this resolution would be passed today, so that the committee might leave Washington tonight.

Wm. Z. Foster, secretary treasurer of the national committee in charge of the strike, was to be heard when Judge Gary completed his testimony.

Charges have been made that Foster is a syndicalist, has at times been identified with the I. W. W. movements, and that he is now connected with organized labor only because he intends to use that as a method for furthering radical purposes. Foster was to be questioned on these charges and also as to the methods adopted in carrying the strike into effect.

Charges that the labor leaders threaten to burn the homes and kill the children of the steel workers if they did not go out on strike, have been made by Judge Gary and also by Senator Poinsette. Foster was to be examined also on this point.

Michael Tighe of the Amalgamated Association of Iron, Steel and Tin Workers, is also scheduled to appear before the committee today. Tighe has been identified with the movement

ROTTEN EGGS ARE THROWN AT U. S. SENATOR REED

Ardmore, Okla., Oct. 2.—Arrest of at least ten men who last night rotten egged United States Senator Ames Reed, of Missouri, when he attempted to speak here in opposition to President Wilson's League of Nations program and ratification of the Versailles treaty, was promised today by local authorities.

During the egg hurling a shot was fired but authorities say they are convinced the shot was fired into the air and that no attempt had been made to shoot the senator.

Senator Reed was scheduled to speak in Convention Hall and had just been introduced by Mayor William Freeman, who explained he was doing his duty in introducing Senator Reed regardless of their difference in views on the topic to be discussed. As Reed took the platform someone at the electric wires throwing the all in darkness. While the hall was dark the speakers platform was showered with eggs. Several members of the local committee were struck by the eggs but Senator Reed escaped unhurt.

MRS. E. P. HOOVEN IS CALLED BEYOND THURSDAY MORNING

Mrs. Sarah Amanda Hooven, wife of Captain E. P. Hooven, died at her home 111 West Third street, at 4:45 o'clock, Thursday morning.

While she has been in failing health for the last six months, and so frail and weak that her death was not unexpected, yet the final summons was sudden. The nurse with Mrs. Hooven, after noticing her sudden collapse, had just time to summon Captain Hooven sleeping in the adjoining chamber, before the end came. She had passed away when other members of the household reached her side. Captain Hooven had talked to his wife at 3 o'clock, and at that time she did not appear any worse, although very weak.

Mrs. Hooven was the daughter of John M. and Ann L. Catrow, and was born in Franklin, O., January 5, 1842. She was educated in schools in her native town at Miss Wilbur's private school in Cincinnati, and completed her education at the Xenia Female seminary, under Prof. Smith.

She was married to Captain Hooven at Franklin January 25, 1865. Captain Hooven was assistant surgeon in the army during the Civil War, having left medical school to enlist in the service.

During their early married life Captain and Mrs. Hooven came to Xenia to live and their home was here until eleven years ago, when Captain Hooven was appointed quartermaster at the National Military Home. They made their home at that place until a year ago, when Captain Hooven resigned as quartermaster, and they returned to Xenia and have since been living at their old home on West Third street, with their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Santmyer.

Mrs. Hooven is survived by her husband and three children; Mrs. John W. Prugh, Mrs. Joseph W. Santmyer, of this city and J. C. Hooven of Dayton. Another child, Lina, died in infancy.

Mrs. Hooven affiliated with the Presbyterian church when she was a young girl, and continued a member of that faith throughout her life. She was a member of the local church of that denomination since she first came to this city to live, never removing her letter from the church after her removal to Dayton.

Funeral services will be held at the late home at 2 o'clock Saturday. The burial in Woodland cemetery, will be private.

Redland Field, Oct. 2.—Before a wild and boisterous crowd of some thirty-five thousand rabid fans, the Cincinnati Reds captured the second game of the all important series this afternoon, defeating Gleason's pets, 4 to 2.

Although the pale hued warriors from the Windy City out hit the Moran proteges, securing ten safe blows of the hurling of Sallee, but the elongated sheriff kept the hits well scattered, except in the seventh, when two runs were pushed across the plate.

As usual the Reds scored first and as has come to be their wont in these world series battles, they staged their zero hour in the fourth inning. The Queen City favorites won the game in that inning when they scored a trio of runs off of Gleason's "invincible" portside, and they added another for good measure in the sixth. At that Williams turned in a highly creditable game, permitting only four hits. He pitched the entire game.

Redland Field, Cincinnati, Oct. 2.—Ideal baseball weather greeted the Reds and White Sox here this afternoon, as they entered the second game of the world's series.

Redland field was baked to mid-summer crispness early in the day, and the fans who came out before noon peeled off coats and collars.

With the thermometer standing at 80 and the strongest sort of a breeze lazily fanning the flags on the grandstand, it looked like a hot job for the Athletics.

The bugs and bugettes did not come out quite so early today. The novelty of being the first at Redland field wore off after they had waited some four or five hours for the first game to start. The pavilion and bleacher seats filled up first, and the center field bleachers presented a mass of white shirted men. Fans rested late, after one of the wildest nights in the history of the town.

With the first game tucked safely away, Pat Moran's brave boys were certain of victory today. They admitted the possibility of defeat before they drove Eddie Cicotte to the showers with an avalanche of hits but take it from them, it's all over but the shouting.

The fans, too, are bulging with confidence and betting on the Reds increased today, although even money was about the best that could be gotten. A few bets with odds favoring the Reds at six to five, were reported.

"Lefty" Williams was selected to hurl the ball for the Sox against Moran's club swingers today. Gleason announced his selection a few hours after the first game was over. Cicotte will be used again when the teams go to Chicago and the Sox are predicting victory the next time he starts. "He wasn't the same old Eddie yesterday, that's all," they say.

Slim Sallee, the elongated Hoovers' port side, was the choice of Manager Moran. Pat succeeded so well with Sallee that he feels as though left handers are the best bets against the Sox.

HOPE FOR SETTLEMENT OF RAIL STRIKE IN ENGLAND IS STRONGER

FIRST TEST OF STRENGTH OVER TREATY AT HAND

Washington, Oct. 2.—The first real test of strength in the senate battle over ratification of the peace treaty was scheduled for this afternoon when the senate was to vote on the Fall amendments. There are 36 of these amendments, sponsored by Senator Fall, Republican, of New Mexico, and designed to eliminate the United States from representation on any of the numerous boards and commissions created under the terms of the treaty of Versailles.

Republican and Democratic leaders have agreed to discussion under the five minute rule, so a vote was anticipated before adjournment tonight.

With the Fall amendments out of the way, it was expected by senate leaders that a vote on the treaty itself would be expedited.

More optimistic senators believed that the final vote might be taken within two weeks.

ADVANCE AGAINST CITY OF PETROGRAD IS TO BE RESUMED

Helsingfors, Oct. 2.—The advance on Petrograd will be resumed next week, according to information received here today.

It will be led by General Judenitch, commander of the army of the new Northwest government in Russia.

In a recent fiery speech at Petrograd, Leon Trotsky, the Bolshevik minister of war, declared that the city must be held at all costs, because it is the "key" to the western front.

Trotsky's journey from Moscow to Petrograd was made to strengthen the war spirit of the Red defenders of the former Russian capital.

READY TO RATIFY TREATY.

Paris, Oct. 2.—Predictions were made in certain circles today that the chamber of deputies may ratify the peace treaty tonight. In view of the trend the debate has taken since the vote of confidence given to Premier Clemenceau's government this prediction is far from being universally accepted. Debate on the treaty has been in progress for about six weeks.

SAYS HIS PRESCRIPTION HAS POWERFUL INFLUENCE OVER RHEUMATISM

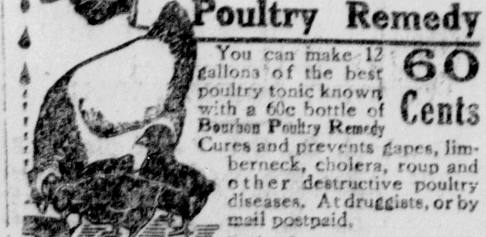

Discoverer Tells Druggists Not to Take a Cent of Anyone's Money Unless Allenbu Completely Banishes All Rheumatic Pains and Twinges

Mr. James H. Allen suffered for years with rheumatism. Many times this terrible disease left him helpless and unable to work.

He finally decided after years of restless study, that no one can be free from rheumatism until the accumulated impurities, commonly called uric acid deposits, were dissolved in the joints and muscles and expelled from the body.

With this idea in mind he consulted physicians, made experiments and finally compounded a prescription that quickly and completely banished every sign and symptom of rheumatism from his system.

He freely gave his discovery to others who took it, with what might be called marvelous success. After years of urging he decided to let sufferers everywhere know about his discovery through the newspapers. Sayre & Hemphill has been appointed agent for Allenbu in this vicinity with the understanding that he will freely return the purchase money to all who state they received no benefit.

SANDRA THE JEALOUS

BY JANE PHELPS.

SANDRA IMPRESSED. CHAPTER LXXXII.

When I had reached my room I stood before the dressing table. I wiped the tears from my eyes, took a book and sat down to read. I would not obey him and go to bed, although I really was tired. No, Leola had defied him and he had worshipped her. I too would defy him as far as I dared—now. Perhaps the time would come when I would dare as much as had Leola. And then he would worship me.

I read in a desultory way until my attention was attracted by this paragraph: "Some souls," it said, "have the power of merging themselves in another, and when the other is gone the power of loving is gone too. One is then compelled to live in the memory of past happiness, happiness that I can't explain, even to you." Of course the closing phrase referred to the person in the story to whom the one quoted was talking.

I read and re-read the paragraph: "When the other is gone the power of loving is gone too. One is compelled to live in the memory of past happiness ***"

Was this true of Everett? Had his soul been so merged with the soul of Leola that when she had gone his power of loving had gone also?

I felt that perhaps at last I had found a solution of Everett's seeming indifference to me. He had lost the power of loving when he lost his happiness—Leola.

But if this were so, I had no reason to fear another woman; and I did fear Irma Barton. Even if he were not in love with her, Everett had no right to be with her entering or being entered while I sat alone with no company but books. After too, when we were alone he was tired from the labors of the day—or so he said. I always felt irritated when this was so, because of my knowledge of his powers of fascinating others with his conversation when he chose.

As I thought of this I was angry and humiliated. Of course I couldn't be expected to hold so brilliant a man's interest. It must be true what they all said—he had married a young, very young and healthy woman because he wanted a family.

Hetty broke in upon my misgivings. "Mr. Kemp is calling," she told me.

One glance at the mirror told me that all trace of tears were gone. "I will be down at once. Show him into the library." Just for a moment I recalled what Everett had said about receiving Walter Kemp, but only for a moment. My only feeling was one of delight that he had remembered me, had cared enough to call.

"I will see him—just as Leola would!" I whispered to my self when again a stray feeling that Everett would not approve swept over me as I descended the stairs.

"This is so good of you," Kemp remarked as I entered the library. "What is?" I asked saucily. "Allowing you to entertain me when I was bored to death by my own society."

"Mr. Graham is not at home?" Then after a second, "I had hoped to find him."

An embarrassed flush made my face burn as I replied:

"We only returned from a visit to my old home this afternoon and like all busy men Mr. Graham found matters that needed his attention," yet although I had spoken glibly, I had a feeling that Walter Kemp did not accept my excuse. My resentment against Everett increased.

But I soon forgot Everett in listening to the airy persiflage of my caller. His brilliant dark eyes looked down into mine with the same admiration in them I had seen that day when he lifted me from the dusty road after our accident.

How I edgelled my brain in vain for witty repartee with which to reply to his nonsense. But he seemed to be satisfied and soon I was chatting of my visit home, my delight in meeting all my old friends, and the party mother gave the night before we left. "Oh, that I might have been there!" he said with mock regret. "Am I never to have a dance with you?"

"If we meet at some private house, yes," I answered in the same careless tone. "But Everett—my husband does not approve of my dancing in public places with anyone but him—and that not often."

"I don't wonder he is afraid of losing you. If you belonged to me I would buy a desert island, and lock you up on it."

"Oh, how dreadful!" Then to ease the situation, I asked: "Shall we go into the music room? Would you like some music?" He rose and followed willingly enough. Then as I switched on the lights he said:

"I see you have a victrola. We can have a dance together right now," and without waiting he opened the machine and adjusted a popular fox trot.

Tomorrow—Kemp is forbidden the house.

Glorious a Nation.

The true glory of a nation is an intelligent, honest, industrious people. The civilization of a people depends on their individual character, and a constitution which is not an outgrowth of this character is not worth the parchment on which it is written. You look in vain in the past for a single instance where the people have preserved their liberties after their individual character was lost.—E. P. Whipple.

CITY COMMISSION SAVES THE CITY MORE THAN $19,000

At a business meeting of the City Commission held Wednesday evening, the new bids on the proposed street paving for Xenia were tabulated, the figures showing a considerable decrease in amount since the first bids were opened and considered two weeks ago.

It was the general consensus of opinion at the meeting that all of the streets in Xenia to be paved this time will be paved with asphalt, which seems to be the wish of the property owners, with the exception of Dayton avenue, which will have to be paved with brick because of the steep grade on that street, and Whiteman and Collier streets, which because of the heavy hauling and traffic on those streets, will probably be paved with concrete, this material being cheaper and just as durable as brick.

The following figures, showing the tabulation of the latest paving bids and their comparisons with the bids of a few weeks ago, represent a considerable saving for the city. By holding up the paving contract for two weeks, the city will save in the neighborhood of $19,575 on the asphalt paving, as 85 per cent of the paving will be of asphalt. The City Commission is to be commended on its action in turning down the previous bids and thereby saving the city a considerable sum of money on the whole contract.

The lowest bids are as follows:
Brick—first letting.....$245,259.00
Brick—second letting.....$233,120.00

$ 12,139.00

It is interesting to note here that the lowest bidder at the first letting, bid $7000 less at the second letting, but was in turn beaten by one of the other bidders, who bid $5,000 under him.

Concrete—first letting...$200,971.65
Concrete—second letting...$178,096.00

$ 22,875.00

Asphalt—Trinidad, first letting.....$218,374.99

Asphalt—Trinidad, second letting.....$212,449.30

$ 5,925.99

The bid on Trinidad asphalt was made by the same contractor in both instances. It will be noted that this firm's second bid was nearly $6,000 less than its first bid.

Oil asphalt, first letting $212,470.00
Oil asphalt, second letting $193,894.53

$ 19,575.47

The bids on the sewers were from $1,000 to $1,500 lower than when offered the first time.

There were seven contractors submitted bids the second time as compared with five contractors the first time. The commission determined at its Wednesday evening meeting which firms were the lowest bidders on the various types of paving and today the responsibility of these firms is being determined. At a public meeting, which will be held this Thursday evening, the commission expects to let the contract to the lowest responsible bidder.

INVITATION FOR WEDDING SENT OUT

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Beatty have sent out cards of invitation to the marriage of their daughter, Miss Mary Katherine Beatty, to Corwin Adams, which will take place Tuesday evening, October 14, at the Beatty home on the Clifton pike, north of Yellow Springs.

Both Mr. Adams and his bride-elect were recently discharged from the service of their country, the former in the army, and the latter in the Red Cross. Mr. Adams is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Adams, of the Clifton pike. He was in the service nearly two years and was overseas. Miss Beatty, who is a graduate of the Springfield City Hospital training School, enlisted in the Red Cross service and during the terrible epidemic of influenza last winter, did heroic work at Camp Sherman. She fell ill of the malady, but after recovery continued her work of mercy among the stricken soldier boys. The marriage of the young couple will be the culmination of a romance which began in their school days.

FLYING MACHINES THEN AND NOW.

In these days, when flying machine owners stand ready to take us up and fly around all over Xenia, and do so take up people by the dozen in a few hours, how far behind the times seems the age and story of "Darius Green and his flying machine." Apropos of Darius' ignominious failure was that of an old-time secretary of the Smithsonian Institution, as told by Hon. Joseph G. Cannon, in an article in Harper's Magazine for October, as follows:

"I have some impressive memories of government experts who did not understand the art of propaganda. There was Professor Langley, for many years secretary of the Smithsonian Institution. He was a great scientist and one of the most modest men about asking for government help that I ever met. About twenty years ago, when I was chairman of the Committee on Appropriations, Professor Langley was before the committee, and after he had presented his estimates to the subcommittee I asked if there was anything else he would like to present to the committee.

"Yes, Mr. Cannon; I would like to have ten thousand dollars to experiment in building a flying-machine," said the professor.

"Great Heavens!" I exclaimed. "A flying-machine to ride up in the air?"

"Yes," he replied. "I don't wonder at your question because you have not given the subject any investigation. But is not a bird heavier than air? Is not the eagle who soars in the sunlight and above the clouds heavier than air; and don't you think we could devise a machine by which the human animal can navigate the air?"

He did not have to argue or make elaborate explanations. The subcommittee agreed to the appropriation, the full committee accepted the recommendation, and the House and Senate made the appropriation; and I was more ridiculed and abused for "wasting the people's money" on flying-machines than for any other appropriation I reported while chairman of that committee. I was cartooned as Mother Shipton riding through the air on a broom, and was given no end of notoriety because of that modest appropriation. Professor Langley built his machine, took it down the Potomac and made it fly, but he was too old to operate it himself and his assistant was too timid, especially with a bevy of newspaper correspondents hovering about to record the failure, and the flying-machine, after a very short flight, tumbled into the river. The gasoline-engine had not been fully developed and Langley failed, but the Wright brothers took up the same principle and, with a better engine, made flying not only a possibility, but developed it into a pastime. They did more. They took the old Langley machine from its place in the National Museum and made it fly over the national capital to let the Congress see that it had not thrown away

When Twenty-five Millions Buy "Cascarets" They Must be "Just Right" for Liver and Bowels

Twenty five million boxes of Cascarets were sold last year to folks who wanted relief from Constipation, Biliousness, Indigestion, Gases, Colds and Sick Headache without being taken up and sickened all the next day. Cascarets work while you sleep, removing the toxins, poisons and sour, indigestible waste without gripping or inconvenience. Cascarets regulate by stimulating the liver and strengthening the bowel muscles. They never weaken or upset you like Salts, Calomel or violent Pills. Cascarets cost so little too.

MILLIONS Suffer from Acid-Stomach

Millions of people suffer year after year from ailments affecting practically every part of the body, never dreaming that their ill health can be traced directly to acid-stomach. Here is the reason: poor digestion means poor nourishment of the different organs and tissues of the body. The blood is impoverished—becomes weak, thin, sluggish. Ailments of many kinds spring from such conditions. Biliousness, rheumatism, lumbarago, sciatica, general weakness, loss of power and energy, headache, insomnia, nervousness, mental depression—even more serious ailments such as catarrh and cancer of the stomach, intestinal ulcers, cirrhosis of the liver, heart trouble—all of these "an often be traced directly to acid-stomach."

Keep a sharp lookout for the first symptoms of acid-stomach—indigestion, heartburn, belching, food repeating, that awful painful bloating after eating, and sour, gassy stomach. EATONIC, the wonderful modern remedy for acid-stomach, is guaranteed to bring quick relief from these stomach troubles. Thousands say they never dreamed that anything could bring such speedy relief—and make them feel so much better in every way. Try EATONIC and you, too, will be just as enthusiastic in its praise. Make your life worth living—no more of that tired, listless feeling. Be well and strong. Get back your physical and mental punch, your vim, vigor and vitality. You will always be weak and ailing as long as you have acid-stomach. So get rid of it now. Take EATONIC Tablets—three taste good—you get them like a bit of candy. Your druggist has EATONIC—50 cents for a big box. Get a box from him today and if you are not satisfied he will refund your money.

GOD'S CALL TO THE MINISTRY.

In accepting his life work a young man would do well to choose a form of service in which he will feel satisfaction as he goes along, and which, as the years go by and his life draws near its close, will be to him a means of real and joyous gratification. As a work of the greatest usefulness and importance, bringing happiness throughout life, and insuring results which will be an eternal reward and recompense, we commend to young men, most heartily, the Gospel ministry.

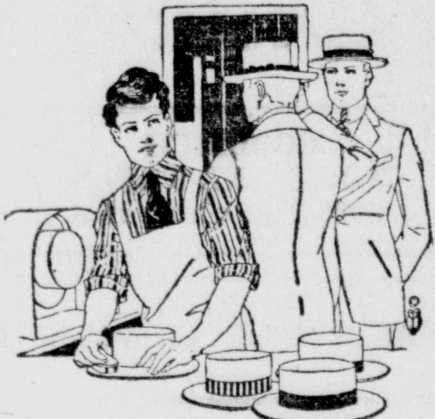

A minister, who has labored faithfully and lovingly for half a century, wrote a few days ago: "The life of a pastor is the happiest and most blessed life on earth. Any one called to it should thank God day and night for the wondrous privilege and opportunity."

This is the time for young men to be starting in with special work of preparation for the ministry, in college or in the theological seminary. Those who hear and heed God's call, and hasten to answer it by preparing for active service, are putting themselves in the way of the highest joy and the noblest preferment.

STRONG MEN AND WOMEN WIN OUT

In business, at work, or at home, you must "make good" or be a failure. The healthy red-blooded man or woman tackles every task fearlessly, with joy and the "pep" that wins.

Plenty of red blood, rich in Iron and Phosphates, is needed if you would win in life's battle.

One of our leading doctors has often remarked, "Life is full of needless failures, all because of need—women do not keep their blood and nerves charged with rich Iron and Phosphates; there is no excuse for the thousands of run-down, weak and nervous men and women when Phosphated Iron, the Red Blood and Nerve Builder, is within reach of all. It will bring back the joy of living and doing; give you rugged health, strength and restful sleep."

If you are all run down, weak, thin or nervous, Phosphated Iron will build you up and make you feel like a live one; it never disappoints. No matter what anyone says you owe it to yourself to take Phosphated Iron. Try it and note for yourself how, after only a few days it increases your health and strength one hundred per cent.

Ask for Phosphated Iron Capsules, and be sure you get capsules. For sale by Solin's Drug Store; and leading Druggists everywhere.

of Commerce of Cincinnati and others will get an opportunity to see a picture of the representative ball team of Cincinnati of a date earlier than that.

An old lithograph of the first team, made in 1866 which has been in the possession of Thomas Langan, former baseball star, for some time, has been sent by him to the Cincinnati Chamber of Commerce where it will be put on exhibition. The lithograph was made by Currier and Ives, Nassau street, New York City in 1866 and the ball players pictured represent the stars of that early date.

The picture is of particular interest because several of the stars on that team later played with the Reds when they were organized in 1869. The picture is prized highly by Mr. Langan who has turned down many tempting offers for it.

New vs. Old

THE Brunswick Method of Reproduction has established new standards of tone projection, due to two outstanding features—two departures from old methods.

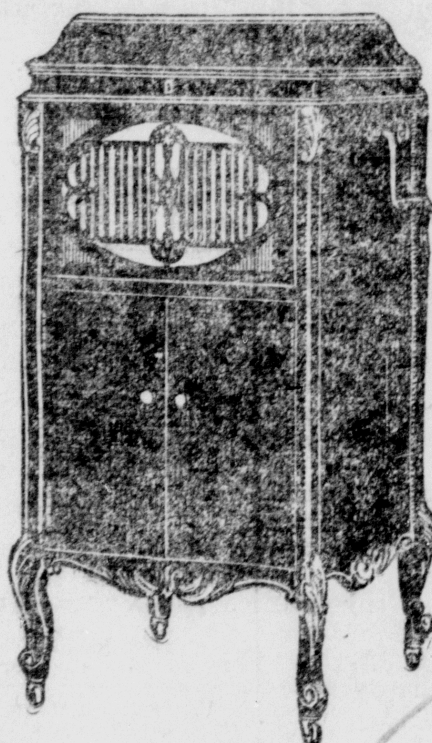

The Ultona reproducer enables you to play all records at their best. Just a turn of the hand presents to each type the proper point and diaphragm, its exact position on the record, and the precise degree of pressure.

As no one record maker has all the desirable singers and entertainers, the advantages of the Ultona are easily appreciated.

The Brunswick Amplifier brings out tones hitherto lost and eliminates the usual metallic sounds, for it is built entirely of molded wood like a fine violin.

Let us explain all the features of The Brunswick to you. We shall gladly put it to any test you wish. But you shall be the judge of its superiorities.

GENERAL BYNG, HERO OF CAMBRAI, WILL DISTRIBUTE CANTEEN PROFITS.

Lord Byng M.L.

General Lord Byng, hero of the brilliant coup of the British forces at Cambrai, who has been appointed head of the British Government organization which will distribute more than 7,000,000 pounds, representing the excess profits of British war canteens and war fund campaigns among the ex-service men. General Byng is one of the most popular of Britain's war heroes. It has often been acknowledged by military experts that his coup at Cambrai, if followed up would have resulted in one of the most disastrous defeats of the German forces.

DIRECTORS OF NEW CIVIC BODY ARE ELECTED

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE DIRECTORS

C. L. Darlington, F. W. Dodds, H. E. Eavey, H. A. Higgins, H. S. LeSourd, Dr. B. R. McClellan, Dr. A. M. Patterson, J. W. Frugh, C. F. Ridenour, J. W. Santmyer, F. L. Smith, C. A. Weaver.

These are the men who will direct the destinies of the Chamber of Commerce from now on the first leg if its existence here.

The above names were announced by E. D. Beatty, Teller, of the committee counting the ballots, following the first open forum of the Chamber of Commerce Wednesday evening. In selecting the above directorate, the Chamber of Commerce has chosen for itself, 12 men who have been in close touch with the workings of the organization through the American City Bureau and who have imbibed much of the spirit and policy of that organization. The election was pleasing to practically every member of the body, and each of the new directors was loudly applauded as his name was read off.

The directors will meet and organize shortly. The officers of the Chamber of Commerce will be elected from the directorate itself, excepting the secretary-manager, who is appointed and will be an American City Bureau expert. Since the organization of the directorate the body can now secure its Secretary-Manager and the real work of the new body will commence.

Burmese Marriages.

A curious idea among the Burmese is that people born on the same day of the week must not marry. Hence each girl carries a record of her birthday in her name, each day having a letter belonging to it, and all children are called by a name that begins with that letter.

PROPOSED AMENDMENT TO THE CONSTITUTION OF OHIO.

CLASSIFICATION OF PROPERTY FOR PURPOSES OF TAXATION.

Be it resolved by the General Assembly of the State of Ohio, three-fifths of the members elected to each house concurring therein:

That there shall be submitted to the electors of the state for their approval or rejection, at the regular election to be held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November, 1919, a proposal to amend Article XII, Section 2, of the constitution of the State of Ohio, to read as follows:

Section 2. All property shall be taxed by such rules and methods and in such classes as may be provided by law. The rules and methods shall be uniform within the classes so established. But all bonds outstanding on the first day of January, 1913, of the state of Ohio, or of any city, village, county or township in the state, or which have been issued in behalf of the public schools in Ohio and means of instruction in connection herewith shall be exempt from taxation; and burying grounds, public school houses, houses used exclusively for public worship, institutions used exclusively for charitable purposes, public property used exclusively for any public purpose, and personal property, to an amount not exceeding in value five hundred dollars, for each individual, may, by general laws, be exempted from taxation; and laws may be passed that result from the taxing of the real estate and the mortgage of the debt secured thereby, or other lien upon it; but all such laws shall be subject to alteration or repeal; and the value of all property so exempted shall, from time to time, be ascertained and published as may be directed by law.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the required publication of the said proposed amendment shall be made and the form of the ballots to be used at said election for the submission thereof shall be prepared by the secretary of state. Returns of the votes cast at said election shall be made by the proper election officials to the secretary of state, who, with the governor and the attorney general, shall open and canvass the same. If a majority of the electors voting on the said amendment shall be ascertained to have voted in favor thereof, the governor shall make proclamation thereof without delay.

After making a brave fight for more than a year, against a complication of ailments, Joseph R. Montgomery, proprietor of the Atlas Hotel, died in his apartments at the hotel at 4-20, Thursday morning.

A year ago last August, Mr. Montgomery was stricken while in the lobby of the hotel, and fell, striking the back of his head against the tiled floor, the blow inflicting a severe wound. That was the beginning of his illness, and he was never well afterward, gradually declining, although everything possible was done to save his life. Throughout his long illness his wife was his ever constant and faithful nurse.

Mr. Montgomery was born in Centerville, Montgomery county, January 23, 1861. Most of his life was passed in Dayton, with the exception of a few years, when he lived in Connersville, Ind. For a number of years he was in the delicatessen business in Dayton, and later he conducted the Auditorium motion picture theater on Fourth street, that city. The flood of 1913 virtually ruined Mr. Montgomery financially, and with a comfortable fortune gone, he and his wife set about to reclaim it. They leased the Atlas Hotel four years ago.

Mr. Montgomery is survived by his widow. Their 2 sons are both dead. He leaves, also, the following brothers and sisters: Mrs. W. B. Davis, of Centerville; Mrs. H. B. Wright, Eugene and Frank Montgomery of Dayton, and Miss Letta Montgomery, of Davenport, Iowa.

He was a member of the Moose lodge at Dayton, and the Eagles, being affiliated with the Connersville, Ind., lodge of that order.

Funeral services will be held Sunday at 2 o'clock, at the Montgomery apartments in the Atlas, and will be conducted by Dr. Massie, pastor of the First Baptist church, Dayton. Burial will be made at Centerville.

THIS IS "SOME STORY" IF TRUE

It is too good to keep, so a young business man in this city who is operating one of a chain of stores, tells it himself. Here is the story as related:

The young man was to call upon a lady friend at 7:30 Sunday evening, and having been up late at the store on Saturday night, dropped upon a couch about three o'clock Sunday afternoon for a little nap.

When he awoke he heard the clock strike six, so he arose and added the finishing touches to his attire before starting out to call upon the young woman.

Reaching the up-town portion of the city the young man was amazed to find the stores open and the business of the city flowing along as usual.

Making inquiry as to why the business places were open on Sunday evening he was informed that it was not Sunday evening but Monday morning. He had slumbered 15 hours instead of three.—Washington C. H. Herald.

To Keep Seborrhea Away Use Famo Every Day

It may seem a strange thing to say, but it is a fact, that people are too enthusiastic about FAMO.

They see the signs of seborrhea, which kills the hair, disappear after one, or at most, two or three applications. They note that the hair takes on a new sheen—that it grows soft, and wavy, and looks better and healthier in every way.

The change is so marked, and they hear such wonderful stories of new hair grown by FAMO, that they argue that frequent applications are not necessary.

This is wrong, all wrong. FAMO is a medicine for the hair, and should be used as a medicine, faithfully and continuously.

New hair will not grow otherwise. The seborrheic bacillus will attack again.

Seborrhea is as dogged and persistent as pyorrhea and pyorrhea is treated daily.

If you do not keep it away it will kill the roots of the hair, just as pyorrhea kills the roots of the teeth.

We know of no medicine save FAMO that will kill seborrhea, and we know of no other that will prevent the return of seborrhea.

But even FAMO cannot safeguard your scalp unless it is used faithfully.

You should no more think of using FAMO only once a week, than you would think of using your toothbrush once a week or using the dentist's prescription for pyorrhea once a week.

FAMO is as necessary, every day, as your tooth-brush is necessary, every day.

When you use it that way you are doing the best thing you can do to assure beautiful hair and a scalp free from dandruff.

It takes but a few minutes every morning to use FAMO.

It requires no rubbing in or massaging.

Be sure of your hair. Be sure by using FAMO every day of your life, wherever you are and whatever you do.

FAMO is sold at all toilet goods counters, in two sizes—$1 and 35 cents.

Seborrhea is the medical name for a moldily increased flow from the sebaceous glands of the scalp. The seborrheic secretion forms in scales or flakes and is commonly known as dandruff.

TOOK HIS WORK SERIOUSLY

Harvard Professor of Greek Insisted That His Students Should Give Best Efforts to Studies.

A scholar of unusual appearance and manner was Professor Sophocles of Harvard, whose genuine love of Greek left him no patience with indifferent students and sometimes led to the charge that he dealt unjustly with the young men in his classes. This anecdote of him appears in Mr. John Spencer Clark's life of John Fiske.

One day a backward student called to explain his remissness and to assure the professor that he did love his Greek study.

"Then name two of your favorite passages," said the professor.

The student named one in the Iliad and one in the Oedipus. Professor Sophocles handed him the books, saying "Find those passages and read them to me."

The student, in his reading, made several serious mistakes.

"Young man," said the professor, brusquely, "you do not understand Greek! You have no love for that noble language! You murder it! Enough! I want no more to do with you."

There was much complaint in the class of '63 that the professor's marks were incorrect, and particularly in the cases of three students entitled to widely different marks. When they complained, Professor Sophocles replied:

"I can't distinguish between you, gentlemen. You must take your chances as to what you get."

OCEAN'S LAW MOST STRICT

Among Fishes the Important Fact of Life Seems to Be, "Eat or Be Eaten."

In the Dublin museum a stuffed angler fish, commonly known as a fishing frog, may be seen, its stomach still swollen by an enormous cod which it had swallowed. In the stomach of the cod were found two large herrings. In each herring were several sprats, while each sprat, in turn, contained a number of tiny crustaceans, or shell fish.

In the salt seas, it is eat or be eaten. The fishing frog, a fish shaped like a gigantic legless frog, and provided with a luminous bait which it dangles from a long feeler over its wide mouth, has the most prodigious appetite. As many as 20 flounders have been found inside one fishing frog; another contained 60 herrings.

Each fish has its special prey. Pollack assemble in shoals and pursue the close formations of young cod. They surround the cod, drive them to the surface and devour them. Whiting, in similar fashion, pursue and devour the herring shoals, while hake feed upon sardines.

Mackerel will eat any small fish. They devour enormous quantities of fry, being especially fond of young mackerels. The John Dory's favorite food is sprats, while rays are not particular; they will devour any fish that come their way.

Self-Reliance.

Now is the time for every one who wants work to think up something for himself. Don't depend upon somebody else. The integrity of life consists in self-reliance. Be your own proprietor, if it is of nothing else but an acre and a little shop. We know the difficulty and do not discard the sympathy. But regard rather that independence and high purpose that make up the real manhood. Men will have to work for others while time lasts, but there is nothing so noble in the hearts as the aspiration to be one's own man and direct one's own destiny. Society is divided in classes these days, each one striving to outwit the other, but the grandest class of all is the man himself, with his own destiny in his fists. With all our organized industry, there never was a time when individual enterprise had a better chance than now. If you are articulated in some great industry, keep in the heart the hope that you will be your own master some day. —Ohio State Journal.

Few Fine Pearls Found.

New fine pearls are rarely found nowadays because the demand has been so great and the fisheries have been worked so continuously that the pearls are not given time to grow. If a fine pearl is bought, it is rarely one that has not been in the market for many years and passed from one dealer to another. Dealers today depend to a large extent upon purchases of pearls from collections of rajahs and princes in India and of old families in Europe. They declare that every time a large and really fine pearl appears in the market a hundred wealthy persons bid for it. Consequently the best pearls are beyond the reach of any but the wealthiest people.

Quilps Which Tickle Travelers.

Nature seems occasionally to have been in an imish mood of jocularity when she was about her work of shaping and molding things. For instance, why did she make the Dalmatian side of the Adriatic one mass of islands and creeks, which are just so many hiding holes for any power that has designs on Italy, and at the same time lay the Adriatic seaboard of Italy as bare and flat and plain as she could plan it? Was it to make the Italian people wide-awake and watchful and resourceful? Besides, the modern world in its pride must never forget that the peninsula produced the Roman.

Overdoing

How American Women Break Down

Owing to the modern manner of living and the nervous haste of every woman to accomplish just so much each day, they overdo, and as a consequence develop ailments peculiar to their sex, as is indicated by backache, headache, nervousness, the blues, displacements and weakness.

Women who find themselves in this condition should slow down, and depend upon that good old fashioned root and herb remedy, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, to restore them to health and strength, for there is no other remedy known that so quickly restores a healthy, normal condition.

Here is the Story of a Most Remarkable Recovery

Minneapolis, Minn.—"I was run down and nervous, could not rest at night, and was more tired in the morning than when I went to bed. I have two children, the youngest three months old, and it was drudgery to care for them as I felt so irritable and generally worn out. From lack of rest and appetite my baby did not get enough nourishment from me, so I started to give him two bottle feedings a day. After taking three bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I felt like a new woman, full of life and energy. It is a pleasure to care for my children and I am very happy with them and feel fine. I nurse my baby exclusively again, and can't say too much for your medicine."

RACE FANS MUCH INTERESTED IN COMING MEETING

Much interest is manifest among horse fans in anticipation of the matinee racing to be held at the county fair grounds Saturday afternoon.

The meeting is in charge of Paul Edwards and Lewis Leach and three events are on the program. The first event of the afternoon will be a mule race, the second event will be a farmers' horse and buggy race, and the third feature will be a pace, in which four starters are entered.

This last event promises to be a lively racing discussion. The four pacers entered are all unmarked starters and there is much rivalry among the owners as to the ability of their respective steeds. The four entries in this event each have their backers and it is expected that some lively stepping will mark the feature event of the program. Purses of $150 each have been offered for each of the three events.

As a feature of the afternoon, Silver P., C. C. Turner's educated saddle horse, will give an exhibition in the home stretch. The animal has been taught many feats by the owner and is rated well in the high school horse class.

Jenkins' band will furnish music throughout the afternoon. An admission of 35 cents including war tax will be charged and the grand stand will be free.

Wheeler Kimbrough will start the speeders during the matinee.

THOUGHT MY LIVER WAS ON A STRIKE

Head Was Giddy, Spots Danced Before My Eyes, Breath Foul, Was Tired and Drowsy. Dreco Wiped It Out.

"I have suffered for quite a while with sluggish liver; at times I would get so dizzy I would have to stop and sit down; spots would dance before my eyes; I had headaches and a bad taste in my mouth; my appetite became poor and my food did not digest nor give me strength; my stomach was often sour, while gas and bloating caused me much uneasiness. The pains often extended round to my back and limbs so that it was an effort to keep on with my work," says Mr. A. C. Rex, member of the firm of Rex Bros. of Harrod, O., near Lima.

"There was so much talk about and praise being given Dreco, I decided to try it. The first bottle proved to me it was a good medicine, as it soothed my stomach and relieved the gas forming. I continued the treatment, and never have a dizzy spell nor see the spots before my eyes; my bowels act regular; my appetite is fine; the food digests and gives me strength; I don't have any more pains in my back or limbs, and haven't had a headache in a long time. Dreco is a good medicine and I gladly add my words of praise for it."

Dreco acts on the liver in a smooth, gentle manner, gradually working off the excess bile day by day. It is neither strong nor harsh and does not excite the muscles of the bowels as strong cathartics do. It tones up the digestive organs and relieves gas on the stomach; puts an end to constipation; increases the appetite; gives strength to weak kidneys; restores tired nerves and induces sound sleep. Dreco is a great blood purifier and system cleanser.

All good druggists now sell Dreco, and it is highly recommended in this city by

Porcupine's Quills Not "Thrown."

The spine of a porcupine, in the usual position, lie nearly flat, with their points directed backward, but when the animal is excited they are capable of being raised. The quills are loosely inserted in the skin and may, on being violently shaken, become detached, a circumstance which probably gave rise to the purely fabulous statement that the animal possesses the power of actually ejecting its quills like arrows or darts at an enemy.

Wanted More "Bee Jelly."

When Howard was visiting grandma he was given his first taste of honey spread on bread and butter. He liked it so much that upon arriving for a second visit he rushed in exclaiming, "O, grandma, can I have a piece of bread and butter with bee jelly on it?"

HOG CHOLERA IS REPORTED IN COUNTIES ADJOINING GREENE CO.

Although no serious outbreaks of hog cholera have been reported in Greene county reports are coming from counties around about that hogs are dying like flies from this disease in certain localities.

There is therefore need to be on the lookout for sick hogs here. Clean quarters for the hogs and good pure water to drink are essential at this time.

Many farmers are making it a practice to immunize all the hogs they grow. Others immunize their breeding stock and take a chance on their market hogs, treating them only if sickness breaks out. For the benefit of those who do treat their hogs against cholera at one time or another the following schedule of serum dosage is published.

The amount of serum which was formerly advised was not as great as is here published. After extensive investigations the Bureau of Animal Industry of the Federal Department of Agriculture arrived at this schedule of serum usage and this is the safe one to follow.

Farmers who have their hogs treated should see that this amount of serum is used if they want to feel safe that they have done all they can to prevent hog cholera in their herd.

Suckling pigs 20 c c
20-40 lb. pigs 30 c c
40-90 lb. pigs 35 c c
90-120 lb. hogs 45 c c
120-150 lb hogs 45 c c
150-180 lb hogs 65 c c
180- lb or over 75 c c

Although it costs more to give hogs this dosage, if it pays to treat at all it pays to treat right. Fever will follow where the amount of serum is used than where a lesser dose is applied. Farmers should check up on the number of bottles of serum used and see that their hogs get the proper dosage.

EDUCATION IS NECESSARY TO THE YOUTH OF TOMORROW

The necessity of securing at least a High School education for an ambitious boy or girl is made very apparent by these facts. A boy of 15, or a girl of 16, who is normal in his school career should be in first or second year of high school. A much more insistent effort should be made to return such children to school than in the case of those who are very retarded educationally, and may not be able to profit by additional years in school. As a very practical aid in the "Back-to-the-School Drive" both the National and the State Committees are urging each community to establish scholarships for those children of working age who are good students and ambitious to continue an education, but are being forced to leave school because of economic pressure. These children frequently belong to families in which the father is either dead or disabled. Children of ability are the most valuable asset of the state. It is very poor policy to allow them to remain uneducated because of family misfortunes. A few hundred dollars spent on them now will mean additional thousands of dollars in their service to society later. Scholarships for children of working age have been in existence in Chicago and in New York for several years, with most gratifying results. Chicago is spending about $10,000 a year in scholarships, and New York much more than this. The need for such effort has been voiced by many thoughtful persons. Will you not lend your ear and your voice to this appeal.

Wednesday the rampant Reds not only got the edge on the big series, but engineered a complete and decisive upset of the well known dope box, spilling the contents all over Bozeman Bulger, Damon Runyan, "Tad" Dorgan, and such well known sport writers, who by a matter of statistics figured that the Windy City athletes were the stronger team. They reckoned not with Moran and Cincinnati spirit.

Probably the most satisfactory fact concerning Wednesday's game was the defeat of Cicotte "Kid" Gleason's premier pitching ace, who was hammered mercilessly by the rollicking Red stockings, and suffered the humiliation of being driven from the mound. Reports that Cicotte's arm was in bad shape, were not true. The Indian's wing was in good condition, the difficulty being that Moran's henchmen simply solved his offerings and uncrated enough base blows to chase him to the showers.

With Cicotte out of the way, things undoubtedly look better around Redland Field. To say that the Redlegs were not nervous concerning the big clash, or not worried over their meeting with Cicotte in the opener, is to say that they were not human. Cicotte is a pitching wonder and to hammer him from the hill is no mean accomplishment and one bound to put confidence into the ranks of the Reds and their followers.

The crafty Gleason was forced to lift his ace, but in order to conserve his small staff of hurlers, consigned the game to profit and loss, and did not insert either one of his big reserve hurlers in to the breach. To have done this, would have merely eliminated one more of his star hurlers, as "Dutch" Reuther had the pale hose well in control, and the "Kid" would have crippled his staff for the games to come. As it was Cicotte only worked in four innings, and a couple of days rest will be sufficient to put him in trim for the third or fourth game. Wilkinson and Loudemilk, both of them second rate hurlers, worked in the latter part of the historic contest, but it took more than bush league hurling to stop Hermanns hirelings.

With the initial fracas stored away on ice, Moran will no doubt breathe a little easier. The fighting Irishman will not let up however, but will go after the remaining games in the hope of making a clean sweep. And there are those who believe that it can be done. It is merely a matter of up-setting the dope again.

It is well to note in surveying the result of Wednesday's game that the "superior hitting" White Sox secured only six hits as compared with the Reds' 14. It is also well to note that the "superior fielding" White Sox made one error, which is exactly the same number of "beners" that the striving Morannmen chalked up. And last but not least, the "unbeatable" and "invincible" Cicotte, premier of the two big circuits, was proved to be only human after all, when confronted by Moran's stickers.

With the forkhander out of the way, what's the answer? Just watch the Reds.

There remains to us a great duty of defense and preservation; and there is open to us also a noble pursuit, to which the spirit of the times strongly invites us. Let us advance the arts of peace and the works of peace. Let us develop the resources of our land, call forth its powers, build up its institutions, promote all its great interests, and see whether we, also, in our day and generation, may not perform something worthy to be remembered.—Daniel Webster.

Legend of Origin of Flowers.

In Sussex, England, the lily of the valley is said to be a memorial of the battle St. Leonard fought with a dragon. The holy man encountered the monster in the forest and battled with it for three days. At last the saint was victorious though wounded seriously, and wherever his blood dripped upon the ground there sprang up lilies of the valley in profusion. In France the lily of the valley is said to have sprung from the Virgin's tears.

REDS TAKE SECOND GAME

STRONG SENTIMENT IS DEVELOPING FOR A
MEMORIAL HOSPITAL

Greene County's Hospital, to be erected as a memorial to the soldiers, sailors and marines of this county, is now resting on the feelings of the people of this county.

Following a meeting of Dr. W. A. Galloway, who is fostering the movement, with the County Commissioners Wednesday and a meeting of the committee of doctors and laymen, held in the rooms of the Chamber of Commerce Wednesday evening, it was practically assured that the issue will be put to a vote of the people on the regular election day, in November. A bond issue of $300,000 will be asked for at that time, to build the hospital.

A strong sentiment favoring such a memorial was expressed at the committee meeting Wednesday evening. When it was expressed that the hospital should not only be a strong factor in the health of the county, but also should be a lasting and fitting memorial to the soldiers, sailors and marines of the late war. In taking this step to thus honor its soldiery, Greene county is making the initial move of this kind in Ohio, and it should set a standard that will do honor to the county in the state.

Strongly favoring the erection, not only of a hospital, but of a good and fitting memorial, was Lieut. Col. John A. Hornsby, who is Chief of the Bureau of Hospital Construction of the United States and also Chief of the Bureau of Hospital Inspection, not having been discharged from the service yet.

Taking the questions that would confront local people in turn, Dr. Hornsby took up the following questions: Is it a good thing to build a hospital? What kind of a hospital? What should it cost? Can you afford to run a hospital after you get it? Dr. Hornsby also answered a number of questions put to him following the meeting.

Dr. Hornsby spoke of the value of the hospital in the community, and of the great good done by the cheaply built hospitals used by the Army. He said that the hospital of today should be a preventative hospital rather than just a curative hospital—that rather than only curing the cases brought to it, it should stand for a disease preventative in the community. The hospital should be a health center out of which should come the factor that will prevent disease," said Dr. Hornsby.

"The cure in the hospital is merely incidental to the service of that hospital. The hospital in the past has not bothered itself with the preventative. In the future we will teach people how to stay well. Today three per cent of the wage earners are sick and unable to work."

Dr. Hornsby argued that the hospital of the future be a place that will take in any living human being who is sick and needs attention. Not to make the hospital a charity place, for it should pay for itself in caring for the sick who really can pay themselves, but to take in everybody whether they can pay for themselves or not, and in any event give them one hundred per cent service, instead of 25 or 30 per cent service as the charity patient usually gets.

Col. Hornsby said that Greene county wants a hospital that is as good as can be obtained, well equipped and manned by the highest type of scientific people trained for that work.

In speaking of the size of the hospital, Dr. Hornsby said that now the county needs 250 hospital beds and only has 60. "I'll guarantee that if you will build any part of 250 beds and equip and run it right, you'll need 500 in another year," said he.

Figuring what Greene County will need in the next thirty years, the hospital should be built on a plan that can easily be added to without great trouble, said the Doctor. He urged that at least $200,000 be expended on the new building and equipment.

Introducing Dr. Hornsby, Dr. Galloway spoke of the debt the county owes to the 1200 boys who went in the various branches of service for their country. These 1200 men in the flower of their manhood, were in the service one year, he explained, and at an average salary minimum of $3 a day they were worth $3,600 a day or in one year, $1,500,000. To build a hospital, he explained, was the least the county could do to help repay these boys, and give them a memorial that is really worth while.

At the noon luncheon Wednesday at which time, Dr. Galloway conferred with members of the county commissioners in regard to the project, it was decided that a bond issue of $200,000 would cover the erection. That this was not enough money was demonstrated at the meeting of doctors and laymen held following the open forum. Laymen expressed themselves strongly in favor of the plan but urged a larger bond issue.

T. B. Andrews, layman member of the board, struck the keynote of a larger bond issue, when he insisted that $300,000 would not be too much to put into the memorial. He was quickly seconded by other members of the committee and it was decided at the meeting that an issue of $300,000 would be asked for at the regular election in November.

Dr. Hornsby's speech came during the first open forum conducted by the Chamber of Commerce. C. A. Weaver acted as Chairman of the meeting and George W. Hanley, of the American City Bureau, explained the purpose of the forum.

FEDERAL TROOPS
CALLED TO QUELL
RIOTS IN HELENA

Helena, Ark., Oct. 2.—Federal troops and special deputies are patrolling Elaine, near here, pending the arrival today of 500 troops from Camp Pike ordered out to quell race riots in which three white men and seven negroes are reported killed and a score or more seriously injured.

The trouble started Tuesday night when Deputy Charles Pratt and W. A. Adkin, while on their way to Hope Spur, near Elaine, to arrest negroes involved in a family quarrel, were ambushed by several negroes who fired a round of shots at the officers, instantly killing Adkin and wounding Pratt.

A negro trusty who was with Pratt at the time of the shooting notified the sheriff, warning him that a general uprising of negroes in that vicinity was planned. A posse on entering Elaine to arrest negroes were fired upon by a negro mob reported to be 1,500.

Arming themselves with shot guns and revolvers several posses from all sections of the country hurried to the aid of the white men at Elaine and in the fighting which followed Clinton Lee and H. A. Tappen, white men of Elaine and seven negroes were reported killed.

Sheriff Amos Darden declared today that more than 100 negroes and a white man who is said to have directed the negro mob in their attack on the posse, have been arrested.

ATTENTION TURNED TO AMERICANIZATION

Cleveland, Oct. 2.—From labor, the eighth annual safety congress of the national safety council today turned its attention to Americanization.

At the opening session labor and capital were both represented in discussion of employee's representation. Labor was told by Cyrus McCormick, Jr., that "our friends of the American Federation of Labor have mistaken the trend of employee representation. It is sincere effort to bring back, Jr., that 'our friends of the benefit of each'."

William M. Leiserson, of Rochester, declared that the essence of democracy is collective bargaining and paper by Matthew Dell, of the American Federation of Labor upheld trade unionism as opposed to the "company union plan."

The principles and methods of Americanization were discussed this afternoon as well as the "immigrants act" and "what the industries can do."

The speakers included Allen T. Burns, New York; Hans Reig, Washington; H. C. Waller, Akron, and Geo. C. Fount, Youngstown.

Two persons killed. Wheeling, West Virginia, Oct. 2.—Two persons, man and wife, were killed, two seriously injured and five others were slightly hurt when a string of loaded mine cars left the elevated tracks at the tangle of the Richland Coal Company at Harwood, and crashed through the roof of a dwelling early today.

Phillip Johnson, a miner, and his wife, were carried to the cellar with the debris. They were dead when dug out.

Mayor Smith made several unsuccessful attempts to save the negro's life, when he himself was seized by the infuriated mob. After being dragged through the streets, a rope was put around his neck and thrown over the support of a trolley pole. Twice the mayor was dragged from the ground before the police rescued him.

HOPE FOR ARBITRATION OF STEEL
STRIKE IS PRACTICALLY GIVEN UP

Washington, Oct. 2.—Hopes for arbitration of the steel strike at the investigating the strike were slight suggestion of the senate committee day as the committee prepared for its second day of examination of E. H. Gary, chief executive officer of the U. S. Steel Corporation.

Judge Gary has shown no disposition to arbitrate, although the members of the committee have not yet been able to put the question to him squarely. Senator Kenyon today proposed to invite Judge Gary to submit the controversy to arbitration but had slight hopes of getting a satisfactory answer.

Senator Kenyon was anxious to get into the record the steps taken by President Wilson to prevent the strike. Judge Gary has refused to state what passed between himself and the president despite testimony before the committee to the effect that the president urged Judge Gary to meet with labor leaders and hear their proposals. Senator Kenyon has asked the White House to make public the correspondence between Judge Gary and President Wilson. Judge Gary today refused to allow the matter to be taken up with the president at the present time although it is expected that within a short time the question will be laid before the president. Senator Kenyon does not doubt that the president will furnish the committee with copies of the correspondence, he said today.

Today Senator Kenyon planned a trip to Pittsburgh to investigate conditions first hand. He has a resolution before the senate giving the committee the authority to investigate outside of the district of Columbia and hoped that this resolution would be passed today, so that the committee might leave Washington tonight.

Wm. Z. Foster, secretary treasurer of the national committee in charge of the strike, was to be heard when Judge Gary completed his testimony.

Charges have been made that Foster is a syndicalist, has at times been identified with the I. W. W. movements, and that he is now connected with organized labor only because he intends to use that as a method for furthering radical purposes. Foster was to be questioned on these charges and also as to the methods adopted in carrying the strike into effect.

Charges that the labor leaders threaten to burn the homes and kill the children of the steel workers if they did not go out on strike, have been made by Judge Gary and also by Senator Poinsett.

Foster was to be examined also on this point. Michael Tighe of the Amalgamated Association of Iron, Steel and Tin Workers, is also scheduled to appear before the committee today. Tighe has been identified with the movement to organize the steel industry for some years and the committee desired to question him concerning the attitude of the steel corporation towards his efforts.

TRIBUTE PAID TO WILSON BY FRANK HANLEY

President Wilson was the dominating figure in the peace conference. It was chiefly due to the confidence which was felt in him by the nations that the peace obtained, while not perfect, was the best peace possible.

Ex-Governor Frank Hanley of Indiana, head of the Flying Squadron, paid this tribute to the head of the nation in his address before a large audience at the Presbyterian church, Wednesday night.

Governor Hanley endorsed heartily the league of nations, declaring that the plan filled the need of something to cement together the powers of the world in order to secure permanent peace and right in the world.

The speaker likened the senators opposing the league of nations to the three who refused to sign the constitution of the United States, because they feared its principles.

Governor Hanley's theme was "The Torchbearer." He opened his address by outlining the war, its aims and ideals, and took up the peace conference and the league of nations, concluding with the part that prohibition is playing in the after war program.

The result of the fight of the liquor interests to kill the prohibition victory in Ohio this fall is being watched closely, Governor Hanley declared, and the success of the wets may mean another ten years' fight to regain the ground lost by the dries, and be a serious blow to the prohibition cause. He discussed the our issues which will come before the voters at the November election.

He explained that the liquor interests of France and England are watching the movements of the wets and dries in this country, and are supplying funds to help the wet campaign. National prohibition a settled fact here, he said, would be the cause of forcing European nations to do the same course for their own protection, to prevent a sober nation forging ahead of them industrially, financially and morally.

The Rev. H. C. Biddlecum, campaign manager for the Greene County Dry Association, presided at the meeting, and prayer was offered by the Rev. Charles Bennett of the First Methodist Episcopal church.

ROTTEN EGGS ARE THROWN AT U. S.
SENATOR REED

Ardmore, Okla., Oct. 2.—Arrest of at least ten men who last night rotten eggs United States Senator Ames Reed, of Missouri, when he attempted to speak here in opposition to President Wilson's League of Nations program and ratification of the Versailles treaty, was promised today by local authorities.

During the egg hurling a shot was fired but authorities say they are convinced the shot was fired into the air and that no attempt had been made to shoot the senator.

Senator Reed was scheduled to speak in Convention Hall and had just been introduced by Mayor William Freeman, who explained he was doing his duty in introducing Senator Reed regardless of their difference in views on the topic to be discussed. As Reed took the platform someone ut the electric wires throwing the all in darkness. While the hall was dark the speakers platform was showered with eggs. Several members of the local committee were struck by the eggs but Senator Reed escaped being hit.

MRS. E. P. HOOVEN
IS CALLED BEYOND
THURSDAY MORNING

Mrs. Sarah Amanda Hooven, wife of Captain E. P. Hooven, died at her home 111 West Third street, at 4:45 o'clock, Thursday morning.

While she has been in failing health for the last six months, and so frail and weak that her death was not unexpected, yet the final summons was sudden.

The nurse with Mrs. Hooven, after noticing her sudden collapse, had just time to summon Captain Hooven, sleeping in the adjoining chamber, before the end came. She had passed away when other members of the household reached her side. Captain Hooven had talked to his wife at 3 o'clock, and at that time she did not appear any worse, although very weak.

Mrs. Hooven was the daughter of John M. and Ann L. Catrow, and was born in Franklin, O., January 5, 1842. She was educated in schools in her native town at Miss Wilbur's private school in Cincinnati, and completed her education at the Xenia Female seminary, under Prof. Smith.

She was married to Captain Hooven at Franklin January 25, 1865. Captain Hooven was assistant surgeon in the army during the Civil War, having left medical school to enlist in his service.

During their early married life Captain and Mrs. Hooven came to Xenia to live and their home was here until eleven years ago, when Captain Hooven was appointed quartermaster at the National Military Home. They made their home at that place until a year ago, when Captain Hooven resigned as quartermaster, and they returned to Xenia and have since been living at their old home on West Third street, with their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Santmyer.

Mrs. Hooven is survived by her husband and three children; Mrs. John W. Prugh, Mrs. Joseph W. Santmyer, of this city and J. C. Hooven of Dayton.

Another child, Lina, died in infancy. Mrs. Hooven affiliated with the Presbyterian church when she was a young girl, and continued a member of that faith throughout her life. She was a member of the local church of that denomination since she first came to this city to live, never removing her letter from the church after her removal to Dayton.

Funeral services will be held at the late home at 2 o'clock Saturday. The burial in Woodland cemetery, will be private.

FESS FINDS HIS MACHINE IN MARYLAND

Columbus, O., Oct. 2.—A Maryland justice of the peace wired Governor Cox asking whether he knew who owned the auto bearing Ohio license tax number 340132.

After looking it up Cox wired Congressman S. D. Fess at Washington that if he couldn't find his machine he might apply to Justice of the Peace F. G. Shinnaman at Elk Ridge, Md.

Shinnaman had found it standing in the road near his home.

Fess answered Cox, thanking him and saying he had recovered the stolen machine.

Redland Field, Oct. 2.—Before a wild and boisterous crowd of some thirty-five thousand rabid fans, the Cincinnati Reds captured the second game of the all important series this afternoon, defeating Gleason's pets, 4 to 2.

Although the pale hosed warriors from the Windy City out hit the Moran proteges, securing ten safe blows of the hurling of Sallee, but the elongated sheriff kept the hits well scattered except in the seventh, when two runs were pushed across the plate.

As usual the Reds scored first and as has come to be their wont in these world series battles, they staged their zero hour in the fourth inning. The Queen City favorites won the game in that inning when they scored a trio of runs off of Gleason's "invincible" portside, and they added another for good measure in the sixth. At that Williams turned in a highly creditable game, permitting only four hits. He pitched the entire game.

Redland Field, Cincinnati, Oct. 2.—Ideal baseball weather greeted the Reds and White Sox here this afternoon, as they entered the second game of the world's series.

Redland field was baked to mid-summer crispness early in the day, and the fans who came out before noon peeled off coats and collars.

With the thermometer standing at 80 and the strongest sort of a breeze lazily fanning the flags on the grandstand, it looked like a hot job for the Athletics.

The bugs and bugettes did not come out quite so early today. The novelty of being the first at Redland field wore off after they had waited some four or five hours for the first game to start. The pavilion and bleacher seats filled up first, and the center field bleachers presented a mass of white shirted men. Fans rested late, after one of the wildest nights in the history of the town.

With the first game tucked safely away, Pat Moran's brave boys were certain of victory today. They admitted the possibility of defeat before they drove Eddie Cicotte to the show, with an avalanche of hits but take it from them, it's all over but the shouting.

The fans, too, are bulging with confidence and betting on the Reds increased today, although even money was about the best that could be gotten. A few bets with odds favoring the Reds at six to five, were reported.

"Lefty" Williams was selected to hurl the ball for the Sox against Moran's club swingers today. Gleason announced his selection a few hours after the first game was over. Cicotte will be used again when the teams go to Chicago and the Sox are predicted victory the next time he starts. "He wasn't the same old Eddie yesterday, that's all," they say. Slim Sallee, the elongated Hinesport sheriff, was the choice of Manager Moran. Pat succeeded so well with Rutherford that he feels as though left handers are the best bets against the Sox.

FIRST TEST OF STRENGTH OVER
TREATY AT HAND

Washington, Oct. 2.—The first real test of strength in the senate battle over ratification of the peace treaty was scheduled for this afternoon when the senate was to vote on the Full amendments. There are 36 of these amendments, sponsored by Senator Full, Republican, of New Mexico, and designed to eliminate the United States from representation on any of the numerous boards and commissions created under the terms of the treaty of Versailles.

Republican and Democratic leaders have agreed to discussion under the five minute rule, so a vote was anticipated before adjournment tonight.

With the Full amendments out of the way, it was expected by senate leaders that a vote on the treaty itself would be expedited.

More optimistic senators believed that the final vote might be taken within two weeks.

ADVANCE AGAINST
CITY OF PETROGRAD
IS TO BE RESUMED

Helsingfors, Oct. 2.—The advance on Petrograd will be resumed next week, according to information received here today.

It will be led by General Judenitch, commander of the army of the new Northwest government in Russia.

In a recent fiery speech at Petrograd, Leon Trotsky, the Bolshevik minister of war, declared that the city must be held at all costs, because it is the "key" to the western front.

Trotsky's journey from Moscow to Petrograd was made to strengthen the war spirit of the Red defenders of the former Russian capital.

READY TO RATIFY TREATY.

Paris, Oct. 2.—Predictions were made in certain circles today that the chamber of deputies may ratify the peace treaty tonight. In view of the trend the debate has taken since the vote of confidence given to Premier Clemenceau's government this prediction is far from being universally accepted. Debate on the treaty has been in progress for about six weeks.

There was noticeable optimism among government officials in Downing street over the outcome of the second session of the labor deputations from the Caxton Hall conference and Premier Lloyd George today.

Representatives from the unions were scheduled to meet the premier at noon, and report later in the day to the conference.

The newspapers are taking a more favorable view of the situation, also.

SAYS HIS PRESCRIPTION HAS POWERFUL INFLUENCE OVER RHEUMATISM

Discoverer Tells Druggists Not to Take a Cent of Anyone's Money Unless All Rhenhu Completely Banishes All Rheumatic Pains and Twinges.

Mr. James H. Allen suffered for years with rheumatism. Many times this terrible disease left him helpless and unable to work.

He finally decided after years of senseless study, that no one can be free from rheumatism until the accumulated impurities, commonly called uric acid deposits, were dissolved in the joints and muscles and expelled from the body.

With this idea in mind he consulted physicians, made experiments and finally compounded a prescription that quickly and completely banished every sign and symptom of rheumatism from his system.

He freely gave his discovery to others who took it, with what might be called marvelous success. After years of urging he decided to let sufferers everywhere know about his discovery through the newspapers. Sayre & Hemphill has been appointed agent for Allen in this vicinity with the understanding that he will freely return the purchase money to all who state they received no benefit.

SANDRA THE JEALOUS

BY JANE PHELPS.

SANDRA IMPRESSED.
CHAPTER LXXXII.

When I had reached my room I stood before the dressing table. I wiped the tears from my eyes, took a book and sat down to read. I would not obey him and go to bed, although I really was tired. No, Leola had defied him and he had worshipped her. I too would defy him as far as I dared—now. Perhaps the time would come when I would dare as much as had Leola. And then he would worship me.

I read in a desultory way until my attention was attracted by this paragraph:

"Some souls," it said, "have the power of merging themselves in another, and when the other is gone the power of loving is gone too. One is then compelled to live in the memory of past happiness, happiness that I can't explain, even to you." Of course the closing phrase referred to the person in the story to whom the one quoted was talking.

I read and re-read the paragraph: "When the other is gone the power of loving is gone too. One is compelled to live in the memory of past happiness." *

Was this true of Everett? Had his soul been so merged with the soul of Leola that when she had gone his power of loving had gone also?

I felt that perhaps at last I had found a solution of Everett's seeming indifference to me. He had lost the power of loving when he lost his happiness—Leola.

But if this were so, I had no reason to fear another woman; and I did fear Irma Barton. Even if he were not in love with her, Everett had no right to be with her entering or being entertained while I sat alone with no company but books. After too, when we were alone he was tired from the labors of the day—or so he said. I always felt irritated when this was so, because of my knowledge of his powers of fascinating others with his conversation when he chose.

As I thought of this I was angry and humiliated. Of course I couldn't be expected to hold so brilliant a man's interest. It must be true what they all said—he had married a young very young and healthy woman because he wanted a family.

Hetty broke in upon my misgivings. "Mr. Kemp is calling," she told me.

One glance at the mirror told me that all trace of tears were gone.

"I will be down at once. Show him into the library." Just for a moment I recalled what Everett had said about receiving Walter Kemp, but only for a moment. My only feeling was one of delight that he had remembered me, had cared enough to call.

"I will see him—just as Leola would!" I whispered to my self when again a stray feeling that Everett would not approve swept over me as I descended the stairs.

"This is so good of you," Kemp remarked as I entered the library.

"What is?" I asked saucily. "Allowing you to entertain me when I was bored to death by my own society."

"Mr. Graham is not at home?" Then after a second, "I had hoped to find him."

An embarrassed flush made my face burn as I replied:

"We only returned from a visit to my old home this afternoon and like all busy men Mr. Graham found matters that needed his attention," yet although I had spoken glibly, I had a feeling that Walter Kemp did not accept my excuse. My resentment against Everett increased.

But I soon forgot Everett in listening to the airy persiflage of my caller. His brilliant dark eyes looked down into mine with the same admiration in them I had seen that day when he lifted me from the dusty road after our accident.

How I cudgelled my brain in vain for witty repartee with which to reply to his nonsense. But he seemed to be satisfied and soon I was chatting of my visit home, my delight in meeting all my old friends, and the party mother gave the night before we left.

"Oh, that I might have been there!" he said with mock regret. "Am I never to have a dance with you?"

"If we meet at some private house, yes," I answered in the same careless tone. "But Everett—my husband does not approve of my dancing in public places with anyone but him—and that not often."

"I don't wonder he is afraid of losing you. If you belonged to me I would buy a desert island, and lock you up on it."

"Oh, how dreadful!" Then to ease the situation, I asked: "Shall we go into the music room? Would you like some music?" He rose and followed willingly enough. Then as I switched on the lights he said:

"I see you have a victrola. We can have a dance together right now," and without waiting he opened the machine and adjusted a popular fox trot. Tomorrow—Kemp is forbidden the house.

Glory of a Nation.

The true glory of a nation is an intelligent, honest, industrious people. The civilization of a people depends on their individual character, and a constitution which is not an outgrowth of this character is not worth the parchment on which it is written. You look in vain in the past for a single instance where the people have preserved their liberties after their individual character was lost.—E. P. Whipple.

CITY COMMISSION SAVES THE CITY MORE THAN $19,000

At a business meeting of the City Commission held Wednesday evening, the new bids on the proposed street paving for Xenia were tabulated, the figures showing a considerable decrease in amount since the first bids were opened and considered two weeks ago.

It was the general consensus of opinion at the meeting that all of the streets in Xenia to be paved this time will be paved with asphalt, which seems to be the wish of the property owners, with the exception of Dayton avenue, which will have to be paved with brick because of the steep grade on that street, and Whiteman and Collier streets, which because of the heavy hauling and traffic on those streets, will probably be paved with concrete, this material being cheaper and just as durable as brick.

The following figures, showing the tabulation of the latest paving bids and their comparisons with the bids of a few weeks ago, represent a considerable saving for the city. By holding up the paving contract for two weeks, the city will save in the neighborhood of $19,575 on the asphalt paving, as 85 per cent of the paving will be of asphalt. The City Commission is to be commended on its action in turning down the previous bids and thereby saving the city a considerable sum of money on the whole contract.

The lowest bids are as follows:
Brick—first letting.....$245,259.00
Brick—second letting.....$233,120.00

It is interesting to note here that the lowest bidder at the first letting, bid $7000 less at the second letting, but was in turn beaten by one of the other bidders, who bid $5,000 under him.
Concrete—first letting...$200,971.00
Concrete—second letting...$178,096.00

Asphalt—Trinidad, first letting.....$218,374.00
Asphalt—Trinidad, second letting.....$212,449.00

The bid on Trinidad asphalt was made by the same contractor in both instances. It will be noted that this firm's second bid was nearly $6,000 less than its first bid.
Oil asphalt, first letting $212,470.00
Oil asphalt, second letting $193,894.53

The bids on the sewers were from $1,000 to $1,500 lower than when offered the first time.

There were seven contractors submitted bids the second time as compared with five contractors the first time.

The commission determined at its Wednesday evening meeting which firms were the lowest bidders on the various types of paving and today the responsibility of these firms is being determined. At a public meeting, which will be held this Thursday evening, the commission expects to let the contract to the lowest responsible bidder.

The two papers will be taken over by the new owners on November 1st and will be published from the plant of the Press. The papers will be under the active management of Mr. Ridenour, who will go to Piqua to reside the latter part of this month.

The Leader-Dispatch is one of the oldest newspapers in this section of the state, having been conducted as a daily for more than thirty years. The Press has been in the daily field at Piqua for about six years and in that time has become firmly established, and enjoyed the cordial support of the entire community. The combined circulation of the two papers will be between 4,000 and 5,000 and will give the new publishers a solid footing in the new field.

Piqua is a wealthy manufacturing city of nearly 20,000 people and is one of the best small cities in the state making the prospects for a progressive newspaper there very bright.

SPRING VALLEY COUPLE QUIETLY WED IN DAYTON

The marriage of Otto Leroy Haines and Miss Susie Mae Clevenger, both of Spring Valley, Ohio, was very quietly solemnized at the beautiful home of the officiating clergymen, Rev. Lewis, of Dayton, Ohio, at 4:30, Thursday afternoon, September 25th, 1919.

The only attendants were the bridegroom's sister, Miss Mildred Haines, and George Helmolt of Dayton.

The impressive double ring ceremony was used.

The bride was attired in white, her dress being trimmed with crystal bead trimming.

A six o'clock dinner, followed by music was given in honor of the newly weds at the Helmolt home.

Mr. Haines is a discharged soldier and had just recently returned from Germany, after having spent 20 months in overseas service.

Mr. and Mrs. Haines expect to go to housekeeping in Dayton in the near future. They have the best wishes of a host of friends.

FLYING MACHINES THEN AND NOW.

In these days, when flying machine owners stand ready to take us up and fly around all over Xenia, and do so take up people by the dozen in a few hours, how far behind the times seems the age and story of "Darius Green and his flying machine." Apropos of Darius' ignominious failure was that of an old-time secretary of the Smithsonian Institution, as told by Hon. Joseph G. Cannon, in an article in Harper's Magazine for October, as follows:

"I have some impressive memories of government experts who did not understand the art of propaganda. There was Professor Langley, for many years secretary of the Smithsonian Institution. He was a great scientist and one of the most modest men about asking for government help that I ever met. About twenty years ago, when I was chairman of the Committee on Appropriations, Professor Langley was before the committee, and after he had presented his estimates to the subcommittee I asked if there was anything else he would like to present to the committee.

"Yes, Mr. Cannon; I would like to have ten thousand dollars to experiment in building a flying-machine," said the professor.

"Great Heavens!" I exclaimed. "A flying-machine to ride up in the air?"

"Yes," he replied. "I don't wonder at your question because you have not given the subject any investigation. But is not the eagle who soars in the sunlight and above the clouds heavier than air; and don't you think we could devise a machine by which the human animal can navigate the air?"

He did not have to argue or make elaborate explanations. The subcommittee agreed to the appropriation, the full committee accepted the recommendation, and the House and Senate made the appropriation; and I was more ridiculed and abused for "wasting the people's money" on flying-machines than for any other appropriation I reported while chairman of that committee. I was cartooned as Mother Shipton riding through the air on a broom, and was given no end of notoriety because of that modest appropriation. Professor Langley built his machine, took it down the Potomac and made it fly, but he was too old to operate it himself and his assistant was too timid, especially with a bevy of newspaper correspondents hovering about to record the failure, and the flying-machine, after a very short flight, tumbled into the river. The gasoline-engine had not been fully developed and Langley failed, but the Wright brothers took up the same principle and, with a better engine, made flying not only a possibility, but developed it into a pastime. They did more. They took the old Langley machine from its place in the National Museum and made it fly over the national capital to let the Congress see that it had not thrown away

When Twenty-five Millions Buy "Cascarets" They Must be "Just Right" for Liver and Bowels

Twenty-five million boxes of Cascarets were sold last year to folks who wanted relief from Constipation, Biliousness, Indigestion, Gases, Colds, Sick Headache without being taken up and sickened all the next day. Cascarets work while you sleep, removing the toxins, poisons and sour, indigestible waste without griping or inconvenience. Cascarets regulate by stimulating the liver and strengthening the bowel muscles. They never weaken or upset you like Salts, Calomel or violent Pills. Cascarets cost so little too.

MILLIONS Suffer from Acid-Stomach

Millions of people suffer year after year from ailments affecting practically every part of the body, never dreaming that their ailments can be traced directly to acid-stomach. Here is the reason: poor digestion means poor nourishment of the different organs and tissues of the body. The blood is impoverished—becomes weak, thin, sluggish. Ailments of many kinds spring from such conditions. Biliousness, rheumatism, hump, sciatica, general weakness, loss of power and energy, headache, insomnia, nervousness, mental depression—even more serious ailments such as catarrh and cancer of the stomach, intestinal ulcers, cirrhosis of the liver, heart trouble—all of these can often be traced directly to acid-stomach.

Keep a sharp lookout for the first symptoms of acid-stomach—indigestion, heartburn, belching, food repeating, that awful painful bloating after eating, and sour, gassy stomach. EATONIC, the wonderful modern remedy for acid-stomach, is guaranteed to bring quick relief from these stomach miseries. Thousands say they never dreamed that anything could bring such speedy relief—and make them feel so much better in every way. Try EATONIC and you, too, will be just as enthusiastic in its praise. Make your life worth living—no aches or pains—no blues or melancholy—no more of that tired, listless feeling. Be well and strong. Get back your physical and mental punch; your vim, vigor and vitality. You will always be weak and ailing as long as you have acid-stomach. So get rid of it now. Take EATONIC Tablets—they taste good—you eat them like a bit of candy. Your druggist has EATONIC—50 cents for a big box. Get a box from him today and if you are not satisfied he will refund your money.

GOD'S CALL TO THE MINISTRY.

In accepting his life work a young man would do well to choose a form of service in which he will feel satisfaction as he goes along, and which, as the years go by and his life draws near its close, will be to him a means of real and joyous gratification. As a work of the greatest usefulness and importance, bringing happiness throughout life, and insuring results which will be an eternal reward and recompense, we commend to young men, most heartily, the Gospel ministry.

A minister, who has labored faithfully and lovingly for half a century, wrote a few days ago: "The life of a pastor is the happiest and most blessed life on earth. Any one called to it should thank God day and night for the wondrous privilege and opportunity."

This is the time for young men to be starting in with special work of preparation for the ministry, in college or in the theological seminary. Those who hear and heed God's call, and hasten to answer it by preparing for active service, are putting themselves in the way of the highest joy and the noblest preferment.

STRONG MEN AND WOMEN WIN OUT

In business, at work, or at home, you must "make good" or be a failure. The healthy red-blooded man or woman tackles every task fearlessly, with joy and the "pep" that wins.

Plenty of red blood, rich in Iron and Phosphates, is needed if you would win in life's battle.

One of our leading doctors has often remarked, "Life is full of needless failures, all because of need—women do not keep their blood and nerves charged with rich Iron and Phosphates; there is no excuse for the thousands of run-down, weak and nervous men and women when Phosphated Iron, the Red Blood and Nerve Builder, is within reach of all. It will bring back the joy of living and doing; give you rugged health, strength and restful sleep.

If you are all run down, weak, thin or nervous, Phosphated Iron will build you up and make you feel like a live one; it never disappoints. No matter what anyone says you owe it to yourself to take Phosphated Iron. Try it and note for yourself how, after only a few days it increases your health and strength one hundred per cent.

Ask for Phosphated Iron Capsules, and be sure you get capsules. For sale by Sohn's Drug Store; and leading Druggists everywhere.

of Commerce of Cincinnati and others will get an opportunity to see a picture of the representative ball team of Cincinnati of a date earlier than that.

An old lithograph of the first team, made in 1866 which has been in the possession of Thomas Langan, former baseball star, for some time, has been sent by him to the Cincinnati Chamber of Commerce where it will be put on exhibition. The lithograph was made by Currier and Ives, Nassau street, New York City in 1866 and the ball players pictured represent the stars of that early date.

The picture is of particular interest because several of the stars on that team later played with the Reds when they were organized in 1869. The picture is prized highly by Mr. Langan who has turned down many tempting offers for it.

New vs. Old

THE Brunswick Method of Reproduction has established new standards or tone projection, due to two outstanding features—two departures from old methods.

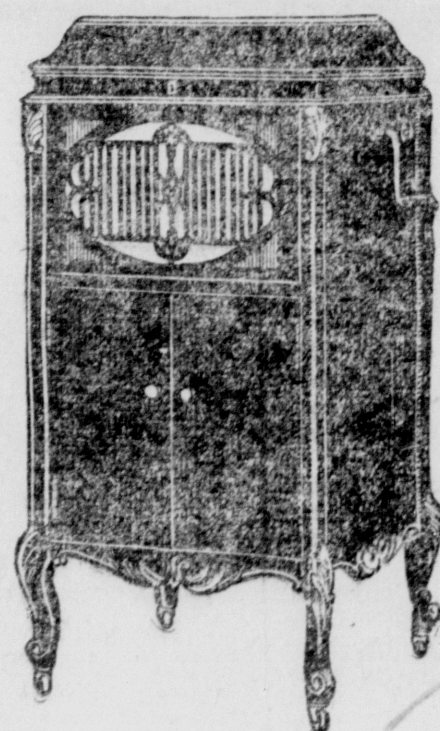

The Ultona reproducer enables you to play all records at their best. Just a turn of the hand presents to each type the proper point and diaphragm, its exact position on the record, and the precise degree of pressure.

As no one record maker has all the desirable singers and entertainers, the advantages of the Ultona are easily appreciated.

The Brunswick Amplifier brings out tones hitherto lost and eliminates the usual metallic sounds, for it is built entirely of molded wood like a fine violin.

Let us explain all the features of The Brunswick to you. We shall gladly put it to any test you wish. But you shall be the judge of its superiorities.

PROPOSED AMENDMENT TO THE CONSTITUTION OF OHIO.

CLASSIFICATION OF PROPERTY FOR PURPOSES OF TAXATION.

Be it resolved by the General Assembly of the State of Ohio, three-fifths of the members elected to each house concurring thereon:

That there shall be submitted to the electors of the state for their approval or rejection, at the regular election to be held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November, 1919, a proposal to amend Article XII, Section 2, of the constitution of the State of Ohio, to read as follows:

Section 2. All property shall be taxed by such rules and methods and in such classes as may be provided by law. The rules and methods shall be uniform within the classes so established. But all bonds outstanding on the first day of January, 1913, of the state of Ohio, or of any city, village, county or township in the state, or which have been issued in behalf of the public schools in Ohio and means of instruction in connection therewith shall be exempt from taxation; and burying grounds, public school houses, houses used exclusively for public worship, institutions used exclusively for charitable purposes, and property used exclusively for any public purpose, and personal property, to an amount not exceeding in value five hundred dollars, for each individual, may, by general laws, be exempted from taxation; and laws may be passed to provide against the double taxation that results from the taxing of both the real estate and the mortgage of the debt secured thereby, or other lien upon it; but all such laws shall be subject to alteration, repeal, and the value of all property so exempted shall, from time to time, be ascertained and published as may be directed by law.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the required publication of the said proposed amendment shall be made and the same shall be used at said election for the submission thereof shall be prepared by the secretary of state. Returns of the votes cast at said election shall be made by the proper election officials to the secretary of state, who, with the governor and the attorney general, shall open and canvass the same. If a majority of the electors voting on the said amendment shall be ascertained to have voted in favor thereof, the governor shall make proclamation thereof without delay.

To Keep Seborrhea Away Use Famo Every Day

It may seem a strange thing to say, but it is a fact, that people are too enthusiastic about FAMO.

They see the signs of seborrhea, which kills the hair, disappear after one, or at most, two or three applications. They note that the hair takes on a new sheen—that it grows soft, and wavy, and looks better and healthier in every way.

The change is so marked, and they hear such wonderful stories of new hair grown by FAMO, that they argue that frequent applications are not necessary.

This is wrong, all wrong. FAMO is a medicine for the hair, and should be used as a medicine, faithfully and continuously.

New hair will not grow otherwise. The seborrhea bacillus will attack again. Seborrhea is as dogged and persistent as pyorrhea and pyorrhea is treated daily.

If you do not keep it away it will kill the roots of the hair, just as pyorrhea kills the roots of the teeth.

We know of no medicine save FAMO that will kill seborrhea, and we know of no other that will prevent the return of seborrhea.

But even FAMO cannot safeguard your scalp unless it is used faithfully.

You should no more think of using FAMO only once a week, than you would think of using your tooth-brush once a week or using the dentist's prescription for pyorrhea once a week.

FAMO is as necessary, every day, as your tooth-brush is necessary, every day.

When you use it that way you are doing the best thing you can do to assure beautiful hair and a scalp free from dandruff.

It takes but a few minutes every morning to use FAMO.

It requires no rubbing in or massaging.

Be sure of your hair. Be sure by using FAMO every day of your life, wherever you are and whatever you do.

FAMO is sold at all toilet goods counters, in two sizes—$1 and 35 cents.

Seborrhea is the medical name for a morbidly increased flow from the sebaceous glands of the scalp. The seborrhean excretion forms in scales or flakes and is commonly known as dandruff.

PROPRIETOR OF ATLAS HOTEL IS CALLED BY DEATH

After making a brave fight for more than a year, against a complication of ailments, Joseph R. Montgomery, proprietor of the Atlas Hotel, died in his apartments at the hotel at 4:20, Thursday morning.

A year ago last August, Mr. Montgomery was stricken while in the lobby of the hotel, and fell, striking the back of his head against the tiled floor, the blow inflicting a severe wound. That was the beginning of his illness, and he was never well afterward, gradually declining, although everything possible was done to save his life. Throughout his long illness his wife was his ever constant and faithful nurse.

Mr. Montgomery was born in Centerville, Montgomery county, January 23, 1861. Most of his life was passed in Dayton, with the exception of a few years, when he lived in Connorsville, Ind. For a number of years he was in the delicatessen business in Dayton, and later he conducted the Auditorium motion picture theater on Fourth street, that city. The flood of 1913 virtually ruined Mr. Montgomery financially, and with a comfortable fortune gone, he and his wife set about to reclaim it. They leased the Atlas Hotel four years ago.

Mr. Montgomery is survived by his widow. Their 2 sons are both dead. He leaves, also, the following brothers and sisters: Mrs. W. B. Davis, of Centerville; Mrs. H. B. Wright, Eugene and Frank Montgomery, of Dayton, and Miss Letta Montgomery, of Davenport, Iowa.

He was a member of the Moose lodge at Dayton, and the Eagles, being affiliated with the Connorsville, Ind., lodge of that order.

Funeral services will be held Sunday at 2 o'clock, at the Montgomery apartments in the Atlas, and will be conducted by Dr. Massie, pastor of the First Baptist church, Dayton. Burial will be made at Centerville.

THIS IS "SOME STORY" IF TRUE

It is too good to keep, so a young business man in this city who is operating one of a chain of stores, tells it himself. Here is the story as related:

The young man was to call upon a lady friend at 7:30 Sunday evening, and having been up late at the store on Saturday night, dropped upon a couch about three o'clock Sunday afternoon for a little nap.

When he awoke he heard the clock strike six, so he arose and added the finishing touches to his attire before starting out to call upon the young woman.

Reaching the up-town portion of the city the young man was amazed to find the stores open and the business of the city flowing along as usual.

Making inquiry as to why the business places were open on Sunday evening he was informed that it was not Sunday evening but Monday morning. He had slumbered 15 hours instead of three.—Washington C. H. Herald.

TOOK HIS WORK SERIOUSLY

Harvard Professor of Greek insisted That His Students Should Give Best Efforts to Studies.

A scholar of unusual appearance and manner was Professor Sophocles of Harvard, whose genuine love of Greek left him no patience with indifferent students and sometimes led to the charge that he dealt unjustly with the young men in his classes. This anecdote of him appears in Mr. John Spencer Clark's life of John Fiske.

One day a backward student called to explain his remissness and to assure the professor that he did love his Greek study.

"Then name two of your favorite passages," said the professor.

The student named one in the Iliad and one in the Oedipus. Professor Sophocles handed him the books, saying "Find those passages and read them to me."

The student, in his reading, made several serious mistakes.

"Young man," said the professor, brusquely, "you do not understand Greek! You have no love for that noble language! You murder it! Enough! I want no more to do with you."

There was much complaint in the class of '63 that the professor's marks were incorrect, and particularly in the cases of three students entitled to widely different marks. When they complained, Professor Sophocles replied:

"I can't distinguish between you, gentlemen. You must take your chances as to what you get."

OCEAN'S LAW MOST STRICT

Among Fishes the Important Fact of Life Seems to Be, "Eat or Be Eaten."

In the Dublin museum a stuffed angler fish, commonly known as a fishing frog, may be seen, its stomach still swollen by an enormous cod which it had swallowed. In the stomach of the cod were found two large herrings. In each herring were several sprats, while each sprat, in turn, contained a number of tiny crustaceans, or shell fish.

In the salt seas, it is eat or be eaten. The fishing frog, a fish shaped like a gigantic legless frog, and provided with a luminous bait which it dangles from a long feeler over its wide mouth, has the most prodigious appetite. As many as 20 foundlers have been found inside one fishing frog; another contained 60 herrings.

Each fish has its special prey. Pollock assemble in shoals and pursue the close formations of young cod. They surround the cod, drive them to the surface and devour them. Whiting, in similar fashion, pursue and devour the herring shoals, while hake feed upon sardines.

Mackerel will eat any small fish. They devour enormous quantities of fry, being especially fond of young mackerels. The John Dory's favorite food is sprats, while rays are not particular; they will devour any fish that come their way.

Self-Reliance.

Now is the time for every one who wants work to think up something for himself. Don't depend upon somebody else. The integrity of life consists in self-reliance. Be your own proprietor, if it is of nothing else but an acre and a little shop. We know the difficulty and do not discard the sympathy. But regard rather that independence and high purpose that make up the real manhood. Men will have to work for others while time lasts, but there is nothing so noble in the hearts as the aspiration to be one's own man and direct one's own destiny. Society is divided in classes these days, each one striving to outwit the other, but the grandest class of all is the man himself, with his own destiny in his fists. With all our organized industry, there never was a time when individual enterprise had a better chance than now. If you are articulated in some great industry, keep in the heart the hope that you will be your own master some day. —Ohio State Journal.

Few Fine Pearls Found.

New fine pearls are rarely found nowadays because the demand has been so great and the fisheries have been worked so continuously that the pearls are not given time to grow. If a fine pearl is bought, it is rarely one that has not been in the market for many years and passed from one dealer to another. Dealers today depend to a large extent upon purchases of pearls from collections of rajahs and princes in India and of old families in Europe. They declare that every time a large and really fine pearl appears in the market a hundred wealthy persons bid for it. Consequently the best pearls are beyond the reach of any but the wealthiest people.

Quips Which Tickle Travelers.

Nature seems occasionally to have been in an immodest mood of jocularity when she was about her work of shaping and molding things. For instance, why did she make the Dalmatian side of the Adriatic one mass of islands and creeks, which are just so many hiding holes for any power that has designs on Italy, and at the same time lay the Adriatic seaboard of Italy as bare and flat and plain as she could plan it? Was it to make the Italian people wide-awake and watchful and resourceful? Besides, the modern world in its pride must never forget that the peninsula produced the Roman.

Overdoing

How American Women Break Down

Owing to the modern manner of living and the nervous haste of every woman to accomplish just so much each day, they overdo, and as a consequence develop ailments peculiar to their sex, as is indicated by backache, headache, nervousness, the blues, displacements and weakness.

Women who find themselves in this condition should slow down, and depend upon that good old fashioned root and herb remedy, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, to restore them to health and strength, for there is no other remedy known that so quickly restores a healthy, normal condition.

Here is the Story of a Most Remarkable Recovery

Minneapolis, Minn.—"I was run down and nervous, could not rest at night, and was more tired in the morning than when I went to bed. I have two children, the youngest three months old, and it was drudgery to care for them as I felt so irritable and generally worn out. From lack of rest and appetite my baby did not get enough nourishment from me, so I started to give him two bottle feedings a day. After taking three bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I felt like a new woman, full of life and energy. It is a pleasure to care for my children and I am very happy with them and feel fine. I nurse my baby exclusively again, and can't say too much for your medicine." Mrs. A. L. MILLER, 2633 East 24th St.

LAXATIVE for Aged People

THE BANE of old age is constipation. The bowels become weak and unable to perform their functions without aid. For this purpose only the mildest and gentlest laxative should be used. The use of harsh cathartics aggravates the trouble and makes the constipation worse. Chamberlain's Tablets are a favorite with people of middle age and older on account of their gentle action.

RACE FANS MUCH INTERESTED IN COMING MEETING

Much interest is manifest among horse fans in anticipation of the matinee racing to be held at the county fair grounds Saturday afternoon.

The meeting is in charge of Paul Edwards and Lewis Leach and three events are on the program. The first event of the afternoon will be a mule race, the second event will be a farmers' horse and buggy race, and the third feature will be a pace, in which four starters are entered.

This last event promises to be a lively racing discussion. The four pacers entered are all unmarked starters and there is much rivalry among the owners as to the ability of their respective steeds. The four entries in this event each have their backers and it is expected that some lively stepping will mark the feature event of the program. Purses of $150 each have been offered for each of the three events.

As a feature of the afternoon, Silver P. C. C. Turner's educated saddle horse, will give an exhibition in the home stretch. The animal has been taught many feats by the owner and is rated well in the high school horse class.

Jenkins' band will furnish music throughout the afternoon. An admission of 35 cents including war tax will be charged and the grand stand will be free.

Wheeler Kimbrough will start the speeders during the matinee.

THOUGHT MY LIVER WAS ON A STRIKE

Head Was Ciddy, Spots Danced Before My Eyes, Breath Foul, Was Tired and Drowsy. Dreco Wiped It Out.

"I have suffered for quite a while with sluggish liver; at times I would get so dizzy I would have to stop and sit down; spots would dance before my eyes; I had headaches and a bad taste in my mouth; my appetite became poor and my food did not digest nor give me strength; my stomach was often sour, while gas and bloating caused me much uneasiness. The pains often extended round to my back and limbs so that it was an effort to keep on with my work," says Mr. A. C. Rex, member of the firm of Rex Bros. of Harrod, O., near Lima.

"There was so much talk about and praise being given Dreco, I decided to try it. The first bottle proved to me it was a good medicine, as it soothed my stomach and relieved the gas forming. I continued the treatment, and never have a dizzy spell nor see the spots before my eyes; my bowels act regular; my appetite is fine; the food digests and gives me strength; I don't have any more pains in my back or limbs, and haven't had a headache in a long time. Dreco is a good medicine and I gladly add my words of praise for it."

Dreco acts on the liver in a smooth, gentle manner, gradually working off the excess bile day by day. It is neither strong nor harsh and does not excite the muscles of the bowels as strong cathartics do. It tones up the digestive organs and relieves gas on the stomach; puts an end to constipation; increases the appetite; gives strength to weak kidneys; restores tired nerves and induces sound sleep. Dreco is a great blood purifier and system cleanser.

All good druggists now sell Dreco, and it is highly recommended in this city by

Porcupine's Quills Not "Thrown."

The spine of a porcupine, in the usual position, lie nearly flat, with their points directed backward, but when the animal is excited they are capable of being raised. The quills are loosely inserted in the skin and may, on being violently shaken, become detached, a circumstance which probably gave rise to the purely fabulous statement that the animal possesses the power of actually ejecting its quills like arrows or darts at an enemy.

Wanted More "Bee Jelly."

When Howard was visiting grandma he was given his first taste of honey spread on bread and butter. He liked it so much that upon arriving for a second visit he rushed in exclaiming, "O, grandma, can I have a piece of bread and butter with bee jelly on it?"

HOG CHOLERA IS REPORTED IN COUNTIES ADJOINING GREENE CO.

Although no serious outbreaks of hog cholera have been reported in Greene county reports are coming from counties around about that hogs are dying like flies from this disease in certain localities.

There is therefore need to be on the lookout for sick hogs here. Clean quarters for the hogs and good pure water to drink are essential at this time.

Many farmers are making it a practice to immunize all the hogs they grow. Others immunize their breeding stock and take a chance on their market hogs, treating them only if sickness breaks out. For the benefit of those who do treat their hogs against cholera at one time or another the following schedule of serum dosage is published.

The amount of serum which was formerly advised was not as great as is here published. After extensive investigations the Bureau of Animal Industry of the Federal Department of Agriculture arrived at this schedule of serum usage and this is the safe one to follow.

Farmers who have their hogs treated should see that this amount of serum is used if they want to feel safe that they have done all they can to prevent hog cholera in their herd.

Although it costs more to give hogs this dosage, if it pays to treat at all it pays to treat right. Fewer will follow where the amount of serum is used than where a lesser dose is applied. Farmers should check up on the number of bottles of serum used and see that their hogs get the proper dosage.

EDUCATION IS NECESSARY TO THE YOUTH OF TOMORROW

The necessity of securing at least a High School education for an ambitious boy or girl is made very apparent by these facts. A boy of 15, or a girl of 16, who is normal in his school career should be in first or second year of high school. A much more insistent effort should be made to return such children to school than in the case of those who are very retarded educationally, and may not be able to profit by additional years in school. As a very practical aid in the "Back-to-the-School Drive" both the National and the State Committees are urging each community to establish scholarships for those children of working age who are good students and ambitious to continue an education, but are being forced to leave school because of economic pressure. These children frequently belong to families in which the father is either dead or disabled. Children of ability are the most valuable asset of the state. It is very poor policy to allow them to remain uneducated because of family misfortunes. A few hundred dollars spent on them now will mean additional thousands of dollars in their service to society later. Scholarships for children of working age have been in existence in Chicago and in New York for several years, with most gratifying results. Chicago is spending about $10,000 a year in scholarships, and New York much more than this. The need for such effort has been voiced by many thoughtful persons. Will you not lend your ear and your voice to this appeal.

Wednesday the rampant Reds not only got the edge on the big series, but engineered a complete and decisive upset of the well known dope box, spilling the contents all over Bozeman Bulger, Damon Runyan, "Tad" Dorgan, and such well known sport writers, who by a matter of statistics figured that the Windy City athletes were the stronger team. They reckoned not with Moran and Cincinnati spirit.

Probably the most satisfactory fact concerning Wednesday's game was the defeat of Cicotte "Kid" Gleason's premier pitching ace, who was hammered mercilessly by the rollicking Red stockings, and suffered the humiliation of being driven from the mound. Reports that Cicotte's arm was in bad shape, were not true. The Indian's wing was in good condition, the difficulty being that Moran's henchmen simply solved his offerings and unceremoniously base blows to chase him to the showers.

With Cicotte out of the way, things undoubtedly look better around Redland Field. To say that the Redlegs were not nervous concerning the big clash, or not worried over their meeting with Cicotte in the opener, is to say that they were not human. Cicotte is a pitching wonder and to hammer him from the hill is no mean accomplishment and one bound to put confidence into the ranks of the Reds and their followers.

The crafty Gleason was forced to lift his ace, but in order to conserve his small staff of hurlers, consigned the game to profit and loss, and did not insert either one of his big reserve hurlers in to the breach. To have done this, would have merely eliminated one more of his star hurlers, as "Dutch" Reuther had the pale horse well in control, and the "Kid" would have crippled his staff for the games to come. As it was Cicotte only worked in four innings, and a couple of days rest will be sufficient to put him in trim for the third or fourth game. Wilkinson and Loudermilk, both of them second rate hurlers, worked in the latter part of the historic contest, but it took more than bush league hurling to stop Hermann's hurlings.

With the initial fracas started away on ice, Moran will no doubt breathe a little easier. The fighting Irishman will not let up however, but will go after the remaining games in the hope of making a clean sweep. And there are those who believe that it can be done. It is merely a matter of up-setting the dope again.

It is well to note in surveying the result of Wednesday's game that the "superior hitting" White Sox secured only six hits as compared with the Reds' 14. It is also well to note that the "superior fielding" White Sox made one error, which is exactly the same number of "beners" that the striving Moranmen chalked up. And last but not least, the "unbeatable" and "invincible" Cicotte, premier of the two big circuits, was proved to be only human after all, when confronted by Moran's stickers.

With the forkhand out of the way, what's the answer? Just watch the Reds.

STOMACH ILLS NO LONGER BOTHER FORMER FIREMAN

W. F. MAHER, OF LOCUST ST. GAVE ALL THE CREDIT TO NERV-WORTH.

Mr. W. F. Maher furnished a typical Nerv-Worth case. Having bought Nerv-Worth at the Jenkins store, Dayton, it was no stranger to him in Xenia and this is what he could knowingly say about it:

Sayre & Hemphill—Was very nervous and run down from trouble with a bad stomach. I suffered extreme pain after eating. Bloating and had gas on my stomach. Couldn't sleep at night and would wake at all hours suffering from pain.

Bought my first Nerv-Worth in Dayton, and now, after taking only two bottles my stomach no longer bothers me. I sleep fine now and have no more gas or bloating. FEEL LIKE A NEW MAN. I can certainly recommend Nerv-Worth.

The Works of Peace.

There remains to us a great duty of defense and preservation; and there is open to us also a noble pursuit, to which the spirit of the times strongly invites us. Let us advance the arts of peace and the works of peace. Let us develop the resources of our land, call forth its powers, build up its institutions, promote all its great interests, and see whether we, also, in our day and generation, may not perform something worthy to be remembered.—Daniel Webster.

Legend of Origin of Flowers.

In Sussex, England, the lily of the valley is said to be a memorial of the battle St. Leonard fought with a dragon. The holy man encountered the monster in the forest and battled with it for three days. At last the saint was victorious though wounded seriously, and wherever his blood dripped upon the ground there sprang up lilies of the valley in profusion. In France the lily of the valley is said to have sprung from the Virgin's tears.
